PACK HISTORY 2015

The season started with much anticipation and excitement with the arrival of the boys in late June. Campers and staff from the United States, Mexico, Venezuela, Great Britain, Spain, Germany, France, Poland, Russia, Czech Republic, the Netherlands, and China arrived at camp eager to start the summer. The day started with Opening Day Ceremonies, Industry selections, and veteran campers teaching new campers the Mowglis Way, followed by the first regular Sunday afternoon, and the long-standing tradition of reading from The Jungle Book. It all made for a great start to the season.

Staff and campers were off to a familiar quick start, with Industries, open period games, and the first trips departing. Akela hiked to Nancy Brook in the rain, and were treated with seeing some wildlife up close, as a black bear toyed with their food and toothpaste! The Den took two different routes through the Pemigewasset wilderness. Panther split into three groups; two traversing the Franconia ridge and the third getting deeper into the Pemigewasset Wilderness. Baloo crossed the lake in the War Canoes to Cliff Island. Belle Island was visited next by Toomai, and Akela took on their first Pack Trip to the Kinsman Ridge. On trip days a lot of trail clearing took place along the Mowglis trails, while the war canoes (and smaller canoes) explored the lake.

The Yearling Program started with a new activity: Wilderness First Aid training. The group took the training seriously and did a great job. The instructor, a veteran combat medic, had nothing but good things to say about the boys. The group proceeded into the woods behind Bear Mountain, only to get lost, and find their way back. Through the various activities—kayaking, biking, hiking, service projects, and rock climbing—the group became a high-functioning unit.

And then, all of a sudden, it was Parents' Weekend. Three weeks in and camp was running smoothly. The grounds were in good shape, the boys were working hard in Industries and began to earn Ribbon requirements. Inspections were starting to shape up, but Akela definitely had the lead. The afternoon was spent with parents before the evening program. Gray Brothers Hall decorations went up in true Mowglis style. The Drama crew put on a spectacular rendition of "Mowglis Back to the Future," which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The ranks of the Junior Staff doubled with the completion of the Yearling Program. Sixteen young men worked hard to keep the camp running smoothly, doing duties, helping in Industries, and pointing out things like "Panther has no coverage" and "We legally have to get a day off every week." This group of young men liked to do work, and didn't back down from any task. On occasion we would ask them, "Campfire or work projects?" They always chose the projects.

Brett Thomas, a visiting ceramics teacher and Artist in Residence, spent a week at camp teaching the Japanese form of pottery glazing called Raku with his mobile setup. Campers and staff learned some new skills and created their own Mowglis tiles.

Woodsmen's Day was a day to remember! Boys and staff showcased balance and strength on the rope joust, exhibited precision and accuracy with an axe, they put their camping skills to the test, and flipped, threw, tossed, and pressed a diverse selection of lumber from the axe yard. And the four Cubs already at camp joined in many valuable roles! An unknowingly wise decision was to have Woodsmen's Day the day before the full squad of Cubs arrived. Within hours, their presence was known to everyone in the Pack by decibels alone.

Den journeyed North to the headwaters of the Connecticut River, paddling in and visiting pristine areas. Again, three groups from Panther took on the Mahoosucs and all conquered the mud and the Notch with great success. Toomai was off to Mt. Cardigan. The Mt. Washington and Gopher Honor Squads embarked on the Presidentials, both summiting Washington with some of the most unpredictable weather in memory. Mowglis hikers visited more rocky summits, while the Racing Crews rowed to Wellington Beach. Cardigan was ascended by all those not on the Red Ribbon Trip, including some visiting photographers.

There were a diverse number of campfires by staff, guests, and alumni. Beginning with "How to pack and wear a Mowglis Pack," the Zamboni brothers surprised Mr. Hart during his exciting motorcycle campfire; a movie and fireworks on the Fourth of July; stump the story teller; learning about staff travels; the Welch vs. Davidge tennis rematch; Mr. Spodick taught about "larping," and then was taken on by Jordan Eisenman; Mr. Scott Smith presented on mountaineering; a local photographer and Wayne King talked about the Blue Moon and what made this one so special; trip reports; s'mores; Howls; current events; crew cheers and rallies; Mr. Walbridge, Mr. Ringe, and Mr. Bengtson finished out the final three evening programs for the summer.

Candle Boat building in the Craft Shop was in high gear, as boys and staff built traditional and unique boats to be launched. One of the largest groups of Graduates and guests attended Graduates Dinner to celebrate and honor the Den Graduates. Final safety and ribbon requirements were earned on the final day of Industries in preparation for the Inner Circle Ceremony. The final day was as fast-paced as usual, with packing, tournament finals, and enjoying the final hours on the clear waters of Newfound Lake, all before the beloved Candlelight Chapel Service and Candle Boat launching.

2015 Graduates' Dinner Reception

As we watched the boats make their way out into the darkness, we reflected on all that we have accomplished as individuals, as dorms, and as members of a caring community. As we prepare to strike out into the world as men, let us not forget the lessons we have learned in the Jungle at camp. Before we depart these shores, let us remember the words of Mr. Harvey Russell from the indoor goodnight song:

*"Above may each boy send forth his light,
While songs from Cubs and Pack now wing their flight,
Good-Night, Good-Night, Good-Night."*

MOWGLIS 2015, WE SALUTE YOU!

—W. THOMAS GREENWELL

BASE CAMP TRIP

This week Baloo went on a base camp trip. We had fun swimming. On Thursday, we hiked up Little and Big Sugarloaf. On the way down, I kept slipping. We canoed back to camp and made it back in time for lunch.

-TEDDY GIBSON

THE FIRST DAY

It was amazing meeting new friends and seeing old friends. It was just truly amazing. Sun shining and the camp just comes alive. It is so nice and beautiful. Gaga, knock-out, and tetherball games that bring people together. We are a community, we are a family, we are a camp. I would be completely different without camp. I work on independence here. I rely on myself, not on others. Thanks to everyone who has helped me get through tough times!

-JACK SEARS

FIRST OVERNIGHT TRIP

The first trip we went on was fun. The hike was amazing and so was the view. At the bottom, a bunch of people fell into the river. On the second night, after a bunch of ghost stories, a bear came into the camp. Not sure if the bear just left, or if Mr. Spodick chased it off. The bear box was flipped, and bags had been moved around the campsite.

-YOSSIE LEBEDEV

CLUBS

Clubs was fun. I played Ga-Ga and lost every time. I was close to winning, but Rainer is a beast. I will now practice Ga-Ga.

-CRIS CAMEJO

CLUBS

Today we had Clubs. I chose the Running Club. We ran to Paradise Point. When we got back, we ran down to the Waterfront and jumped in with our clothes on. It was relaxing. We then went up to the garden. We ate things.

-NATHAN SOUKUP

MR. CAMEJO

My favorite counselor by far is Mr. Camejo. Whenever you hear a strange grunting, you might want to run. Mr. Camejo is really good at drawing sports cars.

-BRONSON BROWN

FUN AT CAMP

This week was fun. We went on our first Pack Trip of the summer, hiking the Franconia Ridge. We hiked Lafayette, which had awesome views even though it was cloudy. Maybe we'll do our trip report tonight. My athletic team is Musashi's Murderous Mulchers. We're going to win the greasy watermelon.

-NICK SEARS

FIRST PACK TRIP

I just went on my first Pack Trip of the year. Hugh, Michael, Wil, Robert, and Diego were in my group. We hiked 6.5 miles on the first and second days, and 11 miles on the third. The group was insanely fast, and we finished early every day. By the end, we all had trail names.

-EMILIANO COVARRUBIAS

SWAG TRIP

This week, Panther embarked on our first Pack Trip. We discovered many things, like Emiliano has a thing for hiker girls. On Bond Cliff, Diego's sleeping pad fell 50 feet down the mountain, and Mr. Graff had to go get it. It was a pretty swag trip.

-WIL OSSELMANN-CHAI

LAPS

A Regular Mowglis Day is one of the greatest days in the world. Over the course of a Regular Mowglis Day, most campers work up quite a large appetite. This large appetite can be satisfied from 6-7pm in the Mowglis dining hall. By using the Laps strategy during a particularly delicious meal, a table boy must be prepared to serve his fellow dorm mates with a hunger-driven ferocity. Once the 'Seconds' sign goes up, the table boys are off. Once they retrieve their table's food, they are given a short break before the next lap begins. The voices of hungry dorm mates echo throughout the dining hall and signal the start of the second lap. The table boys are off and this continues for several more laps. By the fifth or sixth lap, people at the table can barely move, but feel satisfied.

-MAX PEROZEK

FIRST WEEK OF FUN

The first week of Mowglis has been fun. I have made new friends very quickly. The campers are really nice. Hopefully and undoubtedly, this week's fun will flood into the rest of the weeks I am here.

-MICHAEL WILSON

DEAR HOWL

The first week of camp was wet from rain. We took the blue war canoe to Wellington Beach and went on a hike. It took less than an hour to paddle back. Yesterday was the Fourth of July, Independence Day. We watched a movie and saw fireworks.

-TEDDY GIBSON

TIME FLIES AT CAMP

This week passed really fast, especially because we went on our first Pack Trip. Our trip was great. We went a bit slow, but I really enjoyed it! My Industries are camping and canoeing. I hope to get those ribbons. Panther is the best dorm. Watersports Day was the best!

-ANDRÉS MARTÍNEZ

FUN AT CAMP

Camp is really fun, I went on an EPIC overnight trip on Cliff Island. Food is great. Can't wait for more adventures to come.

-REECE HARDING

HAVING FUN AT CAMP

This week has been fun. On Wednesday, we built hammocks in Camping. On Thursday, we canoed to Wellington Beach in the War Canoe and we hiked up the Sugarloafs. Saturday was Watersports Day. I am on the Majestic Flamethrowers. We came in last. I can't wait for the next five weeks.

-EDDIE HODDE

CLIFF ISLAND

On the Cliff Island overnight trip, it was really fun. There were a lot of blueberries, and Alex lost his glasses. Someone messed up his knee. It was hard to paddle back, but we still made it for lunch.

TIME'S FLYING

This has been the 15th day of camp. Time really flies by when you're having fun. Parents Weekend is in a week. For Clubs I played basketball. I did pretty good. Our Pack Trip was really fun. The views were amazing, but it was a hard hike. On the summit of Mt. Lafayette, we were hiking in a cloud but it cleared up at one point.

-KURT GASSIRARO

CLUBS

Today we had Clubs. I did the basketball club with Mr. Nunes and Mr. Higgins. We played knockout and had a tournament. I won one game of knockout. After, we went swimming in the swimmers area. It was a lot of fun.

-RAINER OSSELMAN-CHAI

CAMP WILDLIFE

Today I saw a great blue heron and it was circling the lake. Also, we found a spider and named it Josmua. Trip Day hike was awesome. It was the best view ever.

-PAOLO CUNICELLI

SECOND WEEK

The second week here has been great! Yesterday was the most interesting day. There was bad news and good news. The good news was that I got to be Marty, the main character in the play for Parents Weekend. We also got to have movie night and had Watersports Day. I did take a nasty spill and hurt myself on Trip Day.

-PATRICK JENKINS

FRANCONIA RIDGE

The first day of the Franconia Ridge trip was really good, but I was kind of struggling. The second day was really beautiful... the view, the air!

-JUAN RANSANZ

FUN TRIP

I had fun on the trip. I had three marshmallows, and I made a walking stick. It is so cool!

-TAYLER HURST

ROCK CLIMBING

Today some of the Denites went rock climbing at Rumney Rocks. We were led by Mr. Carothers, Miss Caroline, and Mr. King. We had two different climbs that we could choose from. Most of us finished both and had a great time. Carlos, Ben, Victor, Andrew, Jack, and Jordan were also on the trip. We got back just in time for lunch, and enjoyed it thoroughly.

-HENRY HODDE

CANOEING TO WELLINGTON

On Trip Day this week we went to Wellington in the war canoes. We had a tail wind, so we held our paddles in the air and we went fast. It was really fun.

-ELLIOT BRUNTRAGER

TRIP TO THE MAHOOSUCS

This week I went on the Mahoosucs with Diego, Inaki, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Gulitti, Mr. Spodick, Nathan, Nick and Michael. We started the trip with a two-hour car ride to a crazy bumpy road that was five miles long of just bumpy dirt. We got to the trail head and had a pretty easy four miles up the mountain. We got to the campsite to see Onaway a couple of platforms away which was pretty cool. We had a great dinner. The next day, we had another easy day that we sped through to get to the other campsite in a breeze. We met up with the other group at the campsite which was cool. We handed the stove to them. I also pranked Irving and Alex. We shook their tent and scared them. The next day, we did the Notch and Arm. The Notch was a mile of pure awesomeness. We had awesome views and went to the Speck Pond campsite. This was definitely one of the hardest trips I have ever done, but it was totally worth it. I learned a lot and it was one of my best experiences at Mowglis.

-MORGAN REESE

WATERSPORTS DAY

On Saturday we had Watersports Day. I competed in the greased watermelon, the swamped canoe race and the paddle board relay.

-CHRIS TATUSKO

OPEN WATERFRONT

Just this past week we had Open Waterfront. Nico and I went sailing. Actually it was Nico sailing, and me not doing anything. It was fun. We saw Jordan, who somehow fell off his crew boat. We couldn't help, but we did wish him good luck. After that, we saw Jack and Kyle who had capsized their sailboat. We tried saving Kyle, but we were going too fast. After that, we went back to the Waterfront.

-CARLOS MOYA

CLIFF ISLAND

Baloo took a three-day overnight trip to Cliff Island this week. Using the war canoes, we left the whaler to deal with our belongings and began the uneventful paddle to the island. Singing various songs, we passed Onaway and Mr. Merwin had the wonderful idea of giving Onaway a Mowglis cheer. An anonymous camper told us to flex our muscles. The tailwind picked up and Mr. Merwin had a brilliant idea to sail across the lake using our paddles. We held our paddles up and flew across the lake. The first day was a bit uneventful aside from some strange conversations in the tents at night. The second day we rowed to Wellington and climbed Little and Big Sugarloaf. After dinner we had s'mores before going to bed. Mr. Camejo was doing pull-ups. On the third day we paddled back. The trip was fun.

-SHOH NISHINO

GARFIELD PACK TRIP

This week the Den went on a Pack Trip to Garfield. On the first day, we hiked about 5 miles and got to the top of Garfield Mountain. It was a great view over the entire White Mountains. The next day we hiked to Galehead Hut. We ate lunch there, and then headed into Thirteen Falls campsite. On the third day, we hiked 8 miles to Franconia Falls and had delicious pizza wraps for lunch.

-HENRY HODDE

DEAR HOWL

Today I have so much to tell you. First off, it was my birthday on Wednesday. Then, on Thursday, we had Trip Day. On the hike I saw amazing things: a bright orange lizard and an amazing view on the top of the mountain we climbed. On Saturday I got to go rock climbing, then got to watch fireworks, because it was the Fourth of July. It's been an absolutely fantastic first week, especially since I got to do Archery and Tennis.

-LIAM JENKINS

Baloo Trip Day

CAMP IS FUN

Camp Mowglis is fun. On Trip Day we had a hard hike up, but at the summit it was all worth it. The view was awesome. The hike down was fun. Back at camp we ate an awesome meal.

-RORY FREEMAN

Mr. Gulitti, Mr. King, Tayler Hurst, Alex Moya, Shoh Nishino

I LOVE CAMP

I love camp, camp is fun. I love tetherball, tetherball is fun. I play pokemon, pokemon is fun. I am tableboy, tableboy is not fun.

-TAYLER HURST

TRIP DAY

Baloo went on a hike to Mt. Israel. It was cool. At the top it was blueberry heaven. There was a nice view. It was a cool trip. On the way down lots of us wiped out.

-REECE HARDING

TIME IS FLYING BY

Camp has gone by very fast. I have already gone on one Pack Trip and have earned my Black and White Ribbons. Next week is Squads Week and Crew Week!

-EDDIE HODDE

LARPING CLUB

Camp has been going by very fast. Today I went to the Larping Club. We used foam swords. It was a lot of fun. Even when we all teamed up against Mr. Spodick, we had no chance against his skills.

-OTTO DAGISTINO

Blue Racing Crew

FIRST WEEK OF CAMP

The first week of camp has been great. I am very excited for what's coming next. I can't wait for our first Pack Trip. The food and the weather have been great. The first week went by really fast.

-ANDRÉS MARTÍNEZ

BEST CAMP

I am having a lot of fun in the first week. I already have a lot of friends and with all the good staff this is the best camp!

-SANTI MARTÍNEZ

MR. O'CONNOR

Last Thursday Mr. O'Connor lost in a game of knockout. Then, Morgan said if he made a shot from 50 feet back he would be the winner. So, Mr. O'Connor was ready to take the shot, he threw it up and he swished it!

-KOSTA VARKARIS

ODE TO THE KITCHEN

Camp food is amazing. Every year I come to Mowglis, it seems as if I gain at least five pounds every week. Whenever I blissfully take a bite I feel like I am a Greek god drinking nectar and ambrosia. Every day I anticipate the time when my taste buds will be whisked away to culinary paradise. Camp food is amazing!

-WIL OSSELMANN-CHAI

THE SOCCER MATCH

Tonight, the Lower Ball Field will host the first weekly U.S. vs. International soccer game. What the U.S. team lacks in skill we make up for in national pride. Even with the odds stacked against us, I'm confident the Stars and Bars get the win tonight.

-HUGH MCKELVY

FUN WEEK AT CAMP

This week I went rock climbing and had my first Industry; they were Archery and Canoeing. Canoeing was really wet and the lake was cold. I also found out I am pretty good at Archery.

-LANDON HODSDON

SAILING CLUB

This week was really cool. The Club I chose today was Sailing. I got to go out with Nico. It was really fun. He did most of the work. I did a lot of singing. Nico accidentally capsized and I got wet. Then we got the boat back up and were sailing again. Heading back, we almost capsized again but didn't, but we did lose the paddle. Nico and I did some Mission Impossible moves and jumped in for the paddle. It was pretty cool.

-PATO MARTÍNEZ

ROCK CLIMBING

On Saturday I went rock climbing at a park about an hour away from camp. There were two climbs, a 5.6 and a 5.7. A lot of us tried the 5.7, but didn't make it all the way. I got the highest. Paulo and Ollie both got to the top of the 5.6. It was a lot of fun and I hope I can go climbing again.

-PATRICK JENKINS

SUNDAY FUNDAY

Overall Mowglis is so much fun. Today was fun with Sunday Funday with Mr. Spodick in sword fighting for clubs.

-MATTHEW LUO

THE RACE

Yesterday Otto and I raced Cam Stathos and Zach Paige. Mr. Greenwell would time us to get the dagger board and rig the boat. "Three...two...one...GO!" he yelled, and I started running to the boat while Otto grabbed the dagger board. It was a foot race against Zach. I would have lost but he grabbed the wrong boat. I got into one boat while Otto was on his way. We were rigged and we were gone, except there was a patch of wind that we were in the middle of. Otto got in the boat and started paddling us with his hands on the bow. The others were gaining. I had to tack and jibe to get out of the patch. Victors to Paradise Point, in less than 30 minutes!

SAILING

It's been a lot of fun to get to go sailing on the lake. You can go very fast when there is lots of wind in the 420's.

-DANYA HOGARTY

ROWBOATING RESCUE

On Wednesday in Sign-Up I had rowboating. I was planning on doing the T-rescue requirement with Ben, but let's just say that didn't happen. We were about to start a T-rescue when all of a sudden in about three seconds we drifted to Waingunga Rock. We started to try and row back to camp, but the wind pushed us further and further to Onaway Point. One of the oars broke and we tried rowing the rowboat like a crew boat. It was the most efficient way to move. Mr. Hurdman was out in a kayak and we tied the rowboat to the kayak and Mr. Hurdman led the way back to camp.

-KURT GASSIRARO

GREAT TRIP FOOD

Den just came back from Mt. Garfield, and the one thing that I will never forget was the chicken-flavored couscous. Mr. Davidge and Mr. Covarrubias were cooking. It was the best meal ever.

-VICTOR GENG

CAMP IS FUN

Camp has been a lot of fun the first few weeks. There are many activities to do and the hikes have amazing views.

-ALEX NI

GLAD TO BE BACK

Although camp has just started it feels as if I never left. A year has passed and I am back. It feels as if Mowgli is life, and the off-season is just a vacation. I am glad to be back.

-NICK SPODICK

TRAGEDY STRIKES

Out of all the horrible injuries I've had, the one I am about to tell you about is the worst. I was running as fast as I could down from the dining hall to play tetherball. Shoh and Teddy were right behind me. I looked back to see how far behind. Three seconds later, a tragedy struck. I tripped on a rock and rolled four feet, then slid about six feet. Mr. Bartlett basically carried me to the Lodge as I cried in agony. Mrs. C. took care of me and I wore a big bandage for about two weeks.

-BRONSON BROWN

CAMP IS AWESOME

Before camp started I was very nervous. I had no friends going to camp and it is seven weeks long. But once I got here, all my dorm mates were welcoming me and I felt at home. As soon as industries started I was having a blast. Camp is awesome!

-REECE HARDING

INTERESTING WEEK

This week was very interesting. We rowed to Wellington Beach and hiked up Sugarloaf Mountain. We watched "Back to the Future" and that same night was the 4th of July. Right after the movie we watched fireworks.

-RAINER OSSELMANN-CHAI

CLUBS

Today I did the Soccer and Ultimate Frisbee Club. There were only eight people so we played 4-on-4. My team won 3-2, and more people came so we played another match. Finally, we all played World Cup.

-ZACH PAIGE

BALOO

I am in Baloo this year, and we have a cool dorm. Mr. Merwin is cool.

-ALEX MOYA

A SUMMER TO REMEMBER

A week has gone by and it seemed so short. I already feel right at home and can't wait to complete my Den requirements. Already I've gone on a Pack Trip and that was fun. I already know this will be a summer to remember.

-CARLOS MOYA

DEN PACK TRIP

On Thursday the Den left for a Pack Trip. On the first day we climbed up the Ethan Pond Trail for 1.9 miles to the base of Mt. Willey. We then slack-packed to the summit and were rewarded with great views of Crawford Notch. After a night at the Ethan Pond Campsite we convinced Mr. Bartlett to let us hike an extra two miles so we could stop at the Zealand Falls Hut. After a flat 5 miles, we reached the Hut. When we got to the Hut we went inside to find free pancakes. After our break we continued hiking and summited Zealand Mountain and Mt. Guyot, before heading to an overflow tent site at Guyot campsite. On the final day we climbed Mt. Bond and the Bondcliffs. At the top of the cliffs we ate breakfast and continued down six miles to Franconia Falls. Overall it was a fun 26 miles in 3 days!

-NIC STATHOS

SWORD FIGHTING CLUB

This week we went on the Mahoosucs trip. It was easier than I thought. For Clubs today I did the Sword Fighting Club. I wish it was an Industry.

-CHRISTIAN WILLIAMS

Red Racing Crew

THE SHOE

I have a beautiful, red, sparkly shoe. I got this shoe from the future and inside the shoe was a note that explained how the Red Crew dominated Blue Crew so much that I had to share one victory with my past self, because it is an epic win. So the Blue can look forward to an RVD.

-JACK BECKFORD

GREAT PACK TRIP

This week our dorm went on the Mahoosucs. I was in the group going Northbound. Our first day wasn't too hard and we had fantastic views. Our second day was harder and longer, but even better views. It was really windy and we saw Onaway on top of the first summit. The Onaway group was doing the same trip as us so we pretty much saw them the whole time. On the third day we did the notch in a few hours and the arm in less than an hour. It was hard but fun. The final day we summited Old Speck Mountain and we saw Onaway again at the top and they tied all our packs together on the way down. I had a victory sandwich at the end, consisting of all the leftover food in one sandwich. It was fun.

-NICK SEARS

THE UNDERZONE

At swimming Jack Beckford is King of the Underzone. He is at the David Blaine level and can hold his breath for, well... forever.

-MR. RUBIN

TABLEBOY

For all of you that don't like tableboy, I don't get it. Tableboy is the best duty ever!

-RUI WANG

BUSY WEEK

My dorm spent four days of this last week on the Mahoosucs. Overall it was an awesome hike, but it wasn't easy. My group left a day early. We hiked down the arm. It took a long time to go down, but we made it. Nick Spodick fell a couple of times. As we finished the arm we got into the Notch. There was ice in the cracks and some snow. Sometimes you would take a step and it would drop about 10 degrees. Most of the views were awesome. Also, squads are happening. So much is happening this week.

-KURT GASSIRARO

EAST HEBRON MADRIGAL SOCIETY

Every Parents Weekend I look forward to the evening program in Gray Brothers. Richard Morgan takes to the stage with the East Hebron Madrigal Society to deliver amazing music to the camp. Campers faces light up with excitement as Mr. Morgan and his group take to the stage. With every verse, excitement builds until the crowd gives a standing ovation for Mr. Morgan and his group.

-NIC STATHOS

GOOD FOUR WEEKS

Camp is almost done, however the fun continues on. Connecticut Lakes was last week. Squads are announced today. Crew Week is next week. After that is week seven. Graduation will happen and camp will be done. Life as a Denite has been amazing. It has been a good four weeks.

-JORDAN EISENMAN

TIME'S FLYING

This week my dorm went on the Mahoosucs trip. It was really fun! I can't believe it's already Squads Week. This year has passed so fast. I hope you had a good week. The Cubs come next week.

-ANDRÉS MARTÍNEZ

CAMP IS FUN

Connecticut Lakes was fun. One of the nights Mr. Greenwell brought us out in the spaceship and we went to the Canadian Border. Today was Clubs. I went to riflery tryouts and I think I did good. Then I got to swim. I like this camp. I have a lot of fun here and I have made a lot of friends the last two years.

P.S. Picnic Supper

-ANDREW FLORENCE

EVERY DAY COUNTS

The summer is going by really fast. Crew Week is soon and there are only three weeks of camp left, so make every day count!

-JONAH DORSEY

A NEW LEGEND

During my five years here at Mowglis I have seen many legends take to the pitch in an epic battle between the Internationals and Nationals every Sunday. As the rivalry grew, characters emerged to steal the show. In 2011, Esteban Solis brought his charismatic play to the field and manhandling others out of the way, he would do anything for victory. Next to dominate was Santiago 'Slip n Slide Ronaldo' De Leon and his sidekick Santiago 'Queso' Garcia. Without these heroes to return in 2015, an enumerable amount of people were wondering who would bring magic and mystery to the Sunday night games. But have no fear, a new savior is here. Jacobo 'CK' Secades is ready to yank, pull, push, and slide his way to an International victory. Truly a new Hall of Famer and we can't wait to see what he does on the field tomorrow night.

-HENRY HODDE

BLACK RIBBON

This week was great. I am going for my Black ribbon. We hiked with the Cubs and when we got to the top there was an awesome view. Josie was hiking with us.

-RORY FREEMAN

GOLDEN ANCHOR

I am making really good progress this year. I am taking my Golden Anchor test tomorrow and am going for my Red Ribbon also. I am really intimidated for the solo portage. If I pass my Golden Anchor test I might go for my Silver.

-CAM STATHOS

CUBS SWIMMING

I took some of my Cubs swimming out to Waingunga Rock during Soak. It was so cool to explore the shallow water and dance around on the rocks. Some of them took turns being towed in my lifeguard tube and it totally made us look like a mamma loon swimming with her baby ducklings on the back. I'm so proud of all of them.

-MISS LIZ

SAVOR EVERY MOMENT

As Mowglis Week Four comes to an end I realize its pace, of which I cannot comprehend. Den has gone the fastest of my years in the Pack. Only now I notice my time beginning to slack. As my days as a camper dwindle away I try to make the best of every single day. So for all campers from Cubs to Den, Seize the Day, because your days as a camper will inevitably end! And when Mrs. Holt's Day comes your camper days are finished. Leave with no regrets so your joy is undiminished.

-MAX PEROZEK

THE MEANING OF MOWGLIS

O – is for Out of Our Comfort Zone
W – is for Waingunga Rock
G – is for the Great Outdoors

THREE

There is a specific leader in the dorm of Baloo who owns all the power in camp, from where he sits in the dining hall, to what dorm he wants to own that day. As he walks down to Soak each day, every boy bows down to him, from going to open period all the way into the sacred beginners area. In the mornings, people ask him if they can fold his sheets and blankets each morning. If you have not guessed who I am talking about, it is Tayler Hurst. His voice booms through the entire camp with the voice of a god that no one can resist listening to. Ask anyone in Mowglis, this kid is one mad savage.

-NICK SEARS

SPECIAL PLACE

This is the second year for me at Mowglis. This camp is a really special place. Even as I am away from home and country, I still feel like I'm at home. Today is the start of Parents Weekend. I know my parents are not going to be here with me, but I'm still pumped. I am going out with my friend Peter. I am sure we are going to have fun. All my friends in Den treat each other like family. I love them. I wish I had more time at camp. Two years is just not enough. I want to be a Yearling next year. I love all my friends and this camp.

-VICTOR GENG

DEAR HOWL

I like camp a lot. You can do a lot of things. Today the Cubs are arriving. I hope they aren't too loud.

-ROBIN SOLIBIEDA

SCARY STORIES

This week we heard some scary stories. It was kinda scary.

-REMI LAND

FIRST PACK TRIP

My first Pack Trip was very fun but a little hard, because every time I would go to sleep Matthew would either roll onto my side and I would have to push him off, or Remi would wake me. Mr. Higgins also got us lost on the last day, but we found our way back.

TOOMAI 2015

FIRST WEEK AT CAMP

This first week of camp has gone by so fast. I have done so many things already that they might not even fit on this paper. So I got to camp real late at night and when I thought I would get some sleep I hear everybody ask "So who is actually packed for the trip tomorrow?" In the morning I discovered I was just in time for the best trip of the whole summer. Those four days were very exciting and full of activities I didn't think were possible. Once back at camp, I started talking to Mr. Carothers about how awesome the view is from the Waterfront. Next week is Squads Week, and in a few hours we will find out which Mowglis climbers will hike the most feared terrain in the White Mountains, Mt. Washington.

-PABLO YESAKI

ROCK CLIMBING

Today I went rock climbing with Liam and Ollie, and we climbed the side of a waterfall. It was the best experience I've ever had. Thanks, Mr. King!

-PAOLO CUNICELLI

RACE DAY

It is Race Day and I am so excited. I can't wait to see who will win (BVD). Camp has gone by so fast, I can't believe it's almost over. Hopefully we can get ice cream by the end of the year and I can get my Inner Circle. Overall, it has been a fun year and I am ready for next year.

-INAKI REGO

WEEK FOUR – THE MAHOOSUCS

This week Panther attempted to traverse the Mahoosuc Trail. It was a long and arduous journey, but the satisfaction of completing the longest and steepest 2 miles of the whole Appalachian Trail was well worth it in the end. In other news, Squads are announced today. I hope I have a shot at Gopher Squad, but I won't be too disappointed if I don't make it.

-WIL OSSELMANN-CHAI

DEN 2015

My Den year has been a great experience. This summer I was around funny and caring people and had the best summer of my camper career. I made Racing Crew, a Squad, Inner Circle, and in a few hours I'm going to finish Swimming, which is also my last Den requirement. I'm also going to Graduate. I couldn't have asked for any other people to spend my last summer as a camper with than this Den. Den 2015, I salute you!

-CARLOS MOYA

FUN WEEK

This week was a lot of fun with parents, crew and guitars. My mom brought my guitar on Parents Weekend. People like my guitar. I don't know who will win the race, but go BVD!

-KENNY LITALIEN

FIRST CREW WEEKEND EXPERIENCE

This is my first Crew Weekend and so far I have never experienced anything quite like it. Last night was the pep rally and the bonfire, and the rivalry between the crews was palpable. On the mighty Red Crew, boys painted their whole bodies red and brandished flaming swords. Mr. Spodick even bruised his forehead during cheers because he repeatedly hit himself with his larping shield. I guess his bruises will fade, but his Red Crew pride will never waiver. Go Red!

-MISS SYDNEY

DEAR HOWL

Today we put up crepe paper. Me, Liam, and Patrick red-ified Toomai. It was fun. I like taking the Crafts and Camping Industries.

-ALEX MCGREEVY

Toomai Trip Day

BALOO 2015

AMAZING CREW WEEK

The most exciting week of camp is upon us! The strong Blue and the unified Red race to the finish in the sleek and speedy crew boats. From 3rd Form straight to Racing Crew, the Blue will sweep the Red. Last night the bonfire blazed, and cries of BVD echoed through the night. On Race Day the Blue boats will fly through the water. The camp is covered in crepe paper in shades of Blue, Red, and Purple. Crew Week 2015 has been truly amazing!

-SHOH NISHINO

CREW WEEK

There are just a few hours left before we race. I can tell that tension is building between the Red and Blue Crews. I am on the Blue Crew and on Third Form, which is pretty good for my first year. I remember when I arrived people were getting excited about the events that Crew Week brings. I understand what they are saying now. I just wish Crew Week felt longer. Hope it's a BVD!

-BRANDON ANDERSON

GOLDEN ARROW

I think I might earn my Golden Arrow this year. I am in Toomai and I am only three requirements away and the tournament is coming up. I think I may win. I beat many of the Denites in contests already. But if not this year then next year!

-CONNOR SOUKUP

THE CUBS ARRIVAL

"The Cubs are coming, the Cubs are coming!" a random member of the Pack yells, running down the hill from the lodge. Followed by 15 cars full of Cubs, all of them laughing out the windows while they pull into Cubland. The Cubs climb trees, raid the dining hall, and steal the sail boats. This ruckus doesn't last long as Miss Liz, Mr. Davidge, Mr. Rubin, and Miss Sydney round them all up onto Gray Brothers Field as Miss Liz keeps them in line. Everyone cheers for the Cubs and Miss Liz because we all know that she will make them into real members of the Pack.

-ZACH PAIGE

A GREAT SUMMER

What a great summer this has been. I've had a wonderful, fun, cool, funny, awesome summer. I will miss my friends a lot. I will miss fighting with Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Hurdman. I will miss having fun with the sloth (Jack Sears) and Chuck (Otto). I will miss drawing pictures of the 'vonsnorkeller' with Nick Sears. But most of all I will miss the Pack, and even the Cavites. The fun I have here I will never forget, with all the memories I've made, this is a really special place. I hope to come back for Den next summer!

-PATO MARTINEZ

CREW WEEK FUN

Crew Week is fun. I'm on Second Form Blue as the stroke. Our form works together pretty well and I hope we win. I know it will be a BVD. We won Capture the Flag, my favorite game. I helped to get the Red flag. I hope I'm on Racing Crew next year.

-SIMON SOLIBIEDA

Andrew Florence, Mr. Greenwell, Mr. Robbins

AMAZING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

I have finished my first year at Mowglis. Many great things have happened to me and to the whole dorm. For me, the three most amazing things have been RVD on Crew Day, accomplishments in my Industries, and coming to Mowglis in general. Our dorm has accomplished a lot too, summing 10 mountains, going on our first Pack Trip, and finishing Akela 2015.

A FUN YEAR

This year has been very fun. I got a lot of requirements and earned my Red and Green Ribbons. It is my Den year and I liked it a lot. Washington Squad was fun, and so was the Red Ribbon Trip.

-ANDREW FLORENCE

CREW WEEK

At the beginning of the week I thought this week would be just as fast as last week. However, I was proved wrong by Crew Week. I was surprised that I got into a boat on Third Form. So far, our form has gotten much better since our first practice. We have also been making posters to cheer on our crews.

-HISASHI LONSKE

THINKING AHEAD

I like this camp. Next year I will come back and hopefully finish my Crew, Canoeing, and Rowboating Ribbons. I also want to make Racing Crew.

-IRVING LU

A GREAT YEAR

I'm excited to return home, but at the same time I'm sad to leave camp. I hope I can come back next year. It's the best camp I've ever been to.

-ROBERT NURUMOV

FIRST CREW RACE

Today is Race Day. Everyone on Red Crew knows it's an RVD, and everyone on Blue Crew says it's a BVD. I can't wait to watch the race since it's my first time here. I hope to see Blue at the finish line.

-MICHAEL WILSON

CREW WEEK

Crew Week is almost over and the suspense is killing me. Will Red win or lose? I think Snyder and Hart are both great Crew Leaders. I hope it is an RVD!

-CRIS CAMEJO

Pato Martinez, Mikasi Costandine, Mrs. C.

AKELA 2015

THE BEST YEAR EVER

This year has been the best year I've ever had at Mowglis. I've achieved so many things and I've also faced many challenges. I like every single one of my dorm mates, and I'm going to miss every single one of them. Panther 2015, I salute you.

-EMILIANO COVARRUBIAS

BONFIRE

The bonfire was 16 feet high at the end when Red Crew's flag finally burned. Mr. Beaver was so happy that he picked me up and yelled, "We did it, we did it!"

-TAYLER HURST

AN AMAZING SUMMER

Camp has been an amazing experience, and I am so grateful that I have been able to come here for my second year in a row. I have made so many friends. I am very sad that camp is almost over and hope I am lucky enough to come back next year.

-OTTO DAGISTINO

FIRST YEAR AT CAMP

This was my first year here at Mowglis, and I have to tell you, it was pretty sweet. I made Second Form, Rifle Team, first level of Photography, Golden Bow String, and got all the way up to my Second Bar. I can't wait to come back next year and earn ribbons.

-JONAH DORSEY

CAMP IS ALMOST OVER

Crew Week is the best week. I can't believe it's almost over. Camp is almost over and I'm really sad. I can't wait for the races. I am really nervous but I will do my best, pull as hard as I can, and will see what happens. Hopefully it's a BVD!

-ANDRÉS MARTÍNEZ

CAMP IS HOME

Racing Crew, Inner Circle, Panther, a week of camp until I'm a Denite. So many things that when I was a Cub I saw far away from me. But now, it's all really happening. When I first heard "Come back to Mowglis where the days are never long" I thought it was just a song, but now I see that here days are never long. One more summer until the end of my Mowglis camper years. I think I have never been more at home than at camp. So every second you are here, enjoy it as much as you can, because one day your time as a camper will be over.

-DIEGO MONTIEL

RACING CREW

Being on Racing Crew this week has been the best experience I've had at camp. I am Blue Racing Crew 4 with Ben, Jordan, Nico, Andrés, Hugh and Carlos. I am super nervous for the race. Hopefully we can beat the Red and have a BVD.

-EMILIANO COVARRUBIAS

BALD HEADS

Bald heads are a very respectable feature. Bald heads require constant care and proper materials. Day by day, multiple tubes of sunscreen and Gold Bond are used to keep the beautiful hairless dome in good shape. So next time you see Mr. Snyder with the sun glinting off his shining cranium, think about how much responsibility he carries.

-JACK BECKFORD

WINNING VS. LOSING

From Toomai to Akela, I won every crew race that I was in. I did not know what losing felt like. However, last year was my first year on Racing Crew and I lost. Winning is amazing and losing is awful. After the boats finish, the winners take a victory lap and the losing team rows back to the dock. However, after understanding what losing felt like, I am about to come back this year and understand what it takes to win. We need a perfect start, great spirit, and a fast pace with hard pulls to win the race. This year Red Crew will not give up until we cross the finish line. We will give it everything we have to make our crew proud. RVD 2015!

P.S. "Go Red, Go Blue, and Always Go Green!"

-NIC STATHOS

TIME FLIES

Camp has gone by so fast, and I have accomplished much more than I thought I would have. Such as Pro-Marksman, Marksman and Marksman First Class in Riflery as well as winning Third Form during Crew Week. Even though I have only been here a few weeks I've learned nearly everything of the Pack. See you next summer!

-HISASHI LONSKE

THIRD FORM

I am on seat 2 on Third Form for Red. Practices are very tiring, but fun. Racing Crews are going to be a close race. RVD!

-RORY FREEMAN

THE LAST FEW DAYS OF CAMP

These are the last few days here but I would like to thank everyone who has helped me at camp. But mostly, to thank all my friends.

-AMANI TALBOT EL-NAWAL

CREW DAY

Crew Day is upon us on Newfound Lake. In the afternoon the Crew races will begin, and of course we all know it will be a BVD. I feel so much pressure to win my form because I know it is important to have a sweep. Blue Crew will win over all and have a BVD.

-ZACH PAIGE

RIFLERY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Today I tried out for the Rifle Team. I failed. I shot a 28, two 33's and a 24. That's probably why I didn't make it. I don't care though. I mean I am in Toomai, and I'm proud to be on my Sharpshooter. I personally think I am the best shooter in Toomai and you know, I am gosh darn proud of it.

-PATRICK JENKINS

SIZE DOESN'T MATTER

Today I saw a Toomaite run circles around a Pantherite. Despite being literally half his size, the defenseman had no problem catching up to Mr. McKelvy. At least three, perhaps four times, and in the end, Santiago got the ball away. Well done, gentlemen.

-MR. GREENWELL

PANTHER 2015

SAILING CLUB

Today was Clubs. I went with Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Covarrubias sailing. I went in a sunfish with Pato and we went all the way to Onaway Point. When we arrived, there were about 20 girls sitting on the Point. Pato and I waved but then they left. After that we accidentally capsized the boat and it took us a while to get it back over. Then we went back to camp.

-NICOLAS COVARRUBIAS

FIREWORKS

The other day was the Fourth of July. There were fireworks and they were awesome. We stayed up till 10:00 watching them before going back to our dorms.

-JACOB SCHLES

MR. MERWIN ROCKS

Mr. Merwin is so cool, he always drives the beautiful Barney with rockin' melodies. He is the Mer-Daddy of Baloo and knows how to canoe.

-JACK BECKFORD

INDOOR TETHERBALL

The Den was blessed over the past week with a tetherball that mysteriously appeared on the grounds near our dorm. Thanks to the technical genius of the Den, the tetherball was up and running in no time. However, instead of resting atop a metal pole, we installed an indoor tetherball arena. This tetherball court had gone where no tetherball has gone before. It is a true feat of creativity and engineering.

-MAX PEROZEK

BACK TO THE FUTURE

My last couple of weeks at Mowglis have been very eventful. After a grueling yet extremely productive two-week rehearsal process, "Back to the Future" debuted to a house full of campers and visiting parents. Having watched the campers rehearse tirelessly, I can say that each and every one of them exceed even my greatest expectations. I was amazed by how quickly the boys memorized their lines, especially Liam, George, and Jacob, who had a lot to memorize. Mr. O'Connor also managed to memorize a lot of lines, which was especially impressive considering he only got two rehearsals. Even the boys who had fewer lines held their own by staying on top of their exits and entrances, and took responsibility for all their props. I am still so proud and I feel so lucky to be surrounded by such talented young artists! Mr. Stewart and my Drama kids are awesome!

-MISS SYDNEY

ONLY ONE MORE WEEK OF CAMP - I CAN DO THIS

There is one more week of camp left. Surprisingly, camp has been fun. The first week was hard because it was my first time away from home, but I have learned a lot this summer. Mowglis is a cool place where you meet friends from all over the world. Every day of the last week may not be the best, but I can still do this. I made friends who I might visit after camp. My advice to future campers is when you might not be having fun, time can go slow. Think about the things you enjoy, and camp will go by like the blink of an eye.

-REMI LAND

MOWGLIS A FIRST EXPERIENCE

Mowglis has been very good to me. It has changed me in a very good way. I have learned many new skills; skills at setting goals and meeting new people. This will help me because I am transitioning to a new school after camp. This has been an amazing first experience. Crew Week, Trip Days, Industries, and Soak. All these things and the people here truly are Mowglis' most amazing traits and make me want to come back. Thank you all for a great First Mowglis Experience.

-KYLE BECKFORD

HOT DAY

It was really hot indeed today and everyone was sweaty. I couldn't wait for Soak! On the Den trail-clearing trip we made it from Wellington up to Big Sugarloaf in no time.

-MIKASI COSTANDINE

AN EXCEPTIONAL SUMMER

Not knowing what to expect, I began my Mowglis career as a meek, petrified, four-week camper in Baloo. Things such as Graduation and ribbons were scary and all I wanted to do was goof off and have fun. While I still have fun here, camp has come to mean more to me than that. It has become a tradition, teaching me essential values, like truth, honor, hard work, independence, respect, and teamwork. It is a tradition that I think I not only practice at camp, but year round at home and in school. While it may have been hard for us as a dorm to uphold these values, we have bonded like brothers as no other dorm. From Morgan's tarp house to five inspection points in a row, we've had our ups and downs, but in the end we always emerge as brothers loyal to the Pack. These past weeks have flown by and I think I speak for everyone when I say I wish we had more time. Unfortunately all good things must come to an end. I hope to see you all for a fantastic Den year next summer!

-WIL OSSELMANN-CHAI

AN ENDLESS CHAIN OF GREAT TIMES

I miss home, but I know I will miss Mowglis more when I go home. Mowglis is a great place, a peaceful place, a place full of greatness. It gets better every year. Mowglis is an endless chain of great times.

-GRANT WEBBER

STUFF

Today, stuff happened. Yesterday, more stuff happened. And the day before that, and the day before that. A lot of stuff happened this week.

-CHRISTIAN WILLIAMS

CAMP REFLECTIONS

Today I saw two bald eagles; they landed in the trees outside of our cabin. I also saw a double rainbow the other day. Furthermore, I went on a hike and saw a bright orange salamander. It was also the best experience to fire the cannon at Colors and I got to keep the shell. Campfire is the best because you can tell stories and sometimes roast marshmallows.

-PAOLO CUNICELLI

CAMP FUN

Camp is a place where you have fun and where you probably will never again have a chance to be outside all day. There are always fun activities but sadly there are only four more weeks this summer.

-EDDIE HODDE

THE MAHOOSUCS TRIP

I am excited for the Mahoosucs trip. I have heard so many wonderful things about it. I heard how much fun it is and that everyone loves it. Victor told me it was the "BEST" trip.

-NICK SPODICK

JUST BE THANKFUL

Be thankful for having a great time with your best friends in the beautiful White Mountains of New Hampshire on one of the cleanest lakes in the world for seven whole weeks. So just be thankful for such a special place you are in. This place is one of a kind.

-CAM STATHOS

JUANITA THE PET SPIDER

A few days ago Jack and Victor found a spider on the wash porch. We named it Juanita. It's now the dorm pet. After each meal we go to the Lower Mines to collect a moth to sacrifice to the great spider. We throw the moth into the web and Juanita comes down to wrap it up.

-PETER ZIRNKILTON

CAMP IS AWESOME

Camp is awesome. I have a lot of friends; we play, we have a lot of fun. I wish I could stay here for a full year.

-SANTIAGO MARTINEZ

A FUN WEEK

This week was all full of fun! I was in Rowboating and busted off a ton of requirements! I am one requirement away from my safety.

-KENNY LITALIEN

HUNT THE COUNSELORS

3, 2, 1...Go! All the counselors started to run a few minutes late and the campers started looking for the counselors. I went looking for Mr. Beaver and Mr. Gulitti. It was really fun, great Crew Game!

-KYLE LITALIEN

Mr. Hart tossed my flip-flops in the lake for no reason. I think Mr. Hart is mean.

-BEN MORGAN-BUTCHER

LOOKING FORWARD TO NEXT YEAR

The year is over. I made Inner Circle and Racing Crew. It was a great year. I could say the best one so far. But I'm not done, so let's see if next year beats this one. I'll be waiting for my boys in Panther for Den of 2016.

-DIEGO MONTIEL

TABLEBOY

It was fun at camp, and our tableboy always forgot the cereal.

-ALEX STATHOS

CLUBS AND MOVIE NIGHT

Clubs is the best, they are so fun. The basketball club is awesome and on Saturday we had movie night. Movie night was awesome. It was about an adventure.

-SEBASTIAN REGO

ENGLISH ACCENTS

I love the way everyone tries speaking with an English accent. It's so funny because they're pretty terrible accents, but I suppose it's okay to let them think they are good at it. The summer has been fantastic so far!

-MR. HIGGINS

A FUN HIKE

I really liked the hike, and the cold swim after in the swimmers area. On the hike we saw an orange lizard. It was a fun hike.

-NICO JOHNSTON

Morgan Reese and Mr. Bengtson

MOWGLIS IS THE BEST

I'm very happy being at Camp Mowglis, it is the best summer camp of my entire life. The Staff are taking very good care of us, food is great and the schedule is awesome. We have an entire lake for us with different kinds of boats. There is just one day left for me to go home. I'm going home very happy and looking forward to next summer. I hope I can come back.

-NICOLAS V-Q SUNYER

IMPRESSED

For two weeks I am impressed. This has been one of the most exciting vacations of my life. I would consider this a seven-week paradise. Food comes first in my mind, especially the Mowglis food. All I have to say is biscuits and gravy. Woodworking: The coolest man in camp is Mr. Bengtson. He is a Woodworking god whose touch of the wood heals people with sickness. Tennis: Mr. O'Connor is super chill and helps me earn requirements. The lake is absolutely beautiful.

-MORGAN REESE

CUB HISTORY 2015

This summer up on the hill in Old Ford Hall, 19 cubs were welcomed into Mowglis Gray. Nineteen boys from all over the country and the world gathered and met for the first time. After the Cavities, new and old, got moved into their dorms, kissed their folks goodbye, the fun times began, as we introduced each other and giggled away with name games! We were off to a great start!

Every morning started with a delicious breakfast. After the Cubs were dismissed and Tableboys begin their dirty work, we headed back to Cub Land to work on our duties. Duties time was our chance to take care of the space we live in, and to help make Cub Land look well cared for and pristine.

Once duties were over we got ready for Industries by splitting the boys up into three teams: the Waingungas, the Banderlogs, and the Sambar-Bells. Doing this helped with the Industry rotation, and ensured that our instructors got to know each boy and to focus on the Cubs that needed help finding and developing their craft. The Cubs tried things like Sailing, Row Boating, Canoeing, and Swimming all for the first time. It is truly amazing to watch these little gentleman find out what they're capable of, and create new goals for themselves.

Our first Trip Day was upon us, and Mr. Rubin led the way on our hike up Plymouth Mountain, just across the street from camp. It was a hot day and it was very tiring to hike the Mowglis trail, but we got to the top and ate our lunches like champions. We always go the extra mile teaching "Leave No Trace", and show the Cubs how to pack away their trash. Before leaving, we all went looking around to pick up garbage left by other hikers. The Cubs take pride in knowing that it was a Mowglis trail that got them to the top of a mountain, and they proved that they, too can maintain it like the older boys in the Pack.

Before we knew it, time had flown by and we are at the start of Crew Week. The Cubs received their bandanas and split up into our Red and Blue Crews. Next we readied ourselves for our first overnight camp trip to Cliff Island. We packed up our gear and split up into our respective war canoes. Red Crew in the red canoe, and Blue Crew in the blue canoe. Blue beat the Red to Wellington Beach for the first half of the trip, but then Red beat the Blue to the Island. We were then joined by Mr. and Mrs. Robbins and their kids Lizzie and Dru who camped out with us! We ended the long day of adventure around the campfire eating well-deserved s'mores. The following morning was very windy. We went swimming around the island. The boys took turns sharing goggles to jump in and look at the colorful, underwater world, searching eagerly to spot a fish! After all of fun and games, the Junior Staff came to gather our belongings and help canoe us back home.

Once Crew Week came to an end and the Red crew oar was raised, we went back to doing more Industries. This time the Cavities explored Tennis, Crafts, and even got squeezed in for Woodworking with Mr. Bengtson! The Cubs also got the chance to go Rock Climbing at the famous Rumney rocks with the very cool Mr. King.

Every night at the Cub campfire, Mr. Davidge taught the boys the importance of being silent and reflective during this time, sitting calmly by the campfire and thinking about their day. Before we knew it, little bursts of yawns visited each camper and we were off to bed. On some nights I would read the Jungle Book, and on other nights Miss Sydney would sing lullabies. There was even a night when the rockin' Mr. Crawford put the Cavities to sleep with the magical strums of his guitar.

I cannot believe this summer went by as fast as it did. I hope the adventures the 2015 Cubs had swimming at Waingunga Rock, eating wild blueberries on top of summits, and the water balloon fight lives on in everyone's memory, I know it will in mine. This was indeed, another unforgettable summer in Cub Land.

Cubs of 2015, NEVER STOP EXPLORING!

-MATTIE BRUNTRAGER

CAMP IS ALMOST OVER

I can't believe camp is almost over. My favorite thing I did this year was when I went to Cliff Island and camped overnight. I had a very good time.

YEARLING HISTORY 2015

With safety a primary concern, the Yearlings spent the first two days at camp training in wilderness first aid. This rigorous, 18-hour course is the same one provided to the Staff. The SOLO program is designed to train us to become more informed first aid providers in backcountry environments, where supplies are scarce and professional medical help is hours or even days away. Wilderness First Aid grants us the knowledge base in which to identify injuries as well as improvise medical solutions from our immediate environments. This has been an integral addition to the Yearling Program, as well as to Mowglis as a whole. It is an investment that provides knowledge and training for the Yearlings to utilize when they ultimately become staff.

The Yearling Program is integrated with community-oriented service projects. The boys assisted in trail clearing and maintenance projects around camp, cleaned up Belle Island, assisted at picnic suppers, and, on one occasion, helped get a van unstuck from the mud on a rainy afternoon. In all, the Yearlings have amassed a combined total of over 200 hours of community service.

The program is not all certifications and giving back; a main focus of the Yearling program is to have one last hurrah as campers! Mowglis makes sure that their final weeks as campers are filled with new and unique activities, tailored specifically to these boys. Yearlings have final say in trip planning, which allows for a dynamic program catered specifically to each group's interests.

Our first overnight trip took us to Belle Island. A late start to the day allowed us to leave camp just as the persistent rain clouds broke overhead. We cleaned up the island from previous visitors' use, and left the campground in better condition than we found it...the Mowglis Way!

Rock Climbing has recently been reintroduced at Mowglis, and the Yearlings were honored to be the first of the Pack to be guided by Mr. Zach King. Under his qualified and competent leadership, the Yearlings all challenged themselves to rise to greater and greater heights, literally.

We had hardly finished our first day of climbing when we headed out to Zoar Outdoors in western Massachusetts for a three-day white water kayaking clinic. For three intense days we suited up and ventured out on the Deerfield River to try our luck in the rapids. Led by fantastic and entertaining guides, we were taught the art and science of paddling. We also had a great deal of fun on our trips. Spirits were always high and light. By day three all of us had become accomplished river scouts, skilled in the ability to read the rapids, and to choose our own paths forward.

It wasn't long after we had returned to camp that we found ourselves out once again with Mr. King, scaling the rock walls of Rumney and Cannon. The Yearling program was lucky enough to spend several days out climbing new and exciting pitches.

With the third and final week of Yearlings approaching, we took a break from all the excitement and decided to have a lazy river trip down the Baker with Mr. Bartlett accompanying. A flat-water experience running contrast to the rapids of Zoar, we still managed to find new and unique ways to keep ourselves entertained and happy. We camped out for a night, and enjoyed the short time we had left together as Yearlings.

Our final day trip took us to Lincoln for some mountain biking with Mr. Gulitti. We managed to pedal a distance up the Kancamagus Highway before we found a river suitable for us to cool ourselves off in under the hot afternoon sun. We spent some time splashing about before we headed back for a high-speed downhill sprint. Little did we know that as we were heading home, the Yearling program had completed its final excursion for the year.

With the first half of the season winding down, there was already planning and preparing for the inevitable transition into adulthood, with their first step becoming Junior Staff. These young men were already preparing themselves for the responsibilities of employment. After countless roundtable discussions about the future, and several trial runs with Junior Staff duties, it was clear where the motivations of the group would be taking them. They were ready to shed the image of a camper and start giving back to Mowglis and become the next generation of fantastic Staff that will impact the lives of countless youngsters for years to come.
