2022 PACK HISTORY

Our 119th summer began with a bang—specifically 15 of them—as each member of the mighty Cubs fired our cannon on opening day. Mowglis welcomed 109 boys that day, and as parents pulled away, the hustle and bustle of a Mowglis summer was already in full swing!

The first week having barely begun, the Den set out to the Baldfaces and Akela to Cliff Island. The boys back at camp set to work on their first iteration of Industries, as Mowglis welcomed the formal addition of Blacksmithing to its repertoire. Axes were hung, the first rifle targets scored, and the lake quickly lost its early summer chill much to the delight of boys and staff. The Yearlings joined the Appalachian Mountain Club for trail clearing, and then spent an evening teaching the Cubs the camp songs, a heartwarming tradition. The first Wednesday saw paddlers, joined by Director Nick and Ms. Arin, depart to Franklin, New Hampshire, for a new addition to the canoeing program: white water instruction! On Sunday, a new sound rang out, the sound of shotgun blasts from the Upper Ball Field as Mr. Hart taught Trap Shooting as a Sunday Club.

Week two saw the return of Akela and with them the unwelcome arrival of COVID. In typical Mowglis fashion, we fought on despite the challenge, with Mr. Liam Jenkins keeping order in Akela's "tent city" on the Lower Ball Field. The cases made their rounds, and even Director Nick found himself quarantined in HQ, managing the camp from behind yellow tape. As Nurse Kathy and the medical team did their level best to keep the remainder of camp healthy, Mowglis carried on! Panther set out on the Franconia Ridge Trip and Toomai visited Mt. Cardigan. Though the few remaining "quaranteeners" had to watch from Kaa, the 4th of July brought the whole camp together to revel in what may have been Mr. Hart and Mr. Greenwell's best fireworks display yet, each managing to return to shore with the same number of fingers and toes they started with!

Week three saw the COVID cases dissipate and we were able to welcome most of the affected back into camp (masked, of course). A sense of normalcy began to return, and with it the first ribbons were announced in the dining hall. The Mighty Cubs ventured out on their first overnight of the summer to the time-honored Mt. Cardigan. The Akelites shed their masks en route to Eliza Brook, their first pack trip as a dorm. Land Sports day celebrated the reunification of the entire Pack. The slip and slide was readily put to use, Nurse Kathy manning the hose, and we saw the introduction of actual javelins under the tutelage of Mr. Mida. Hulk's Bunches of Hurricanes took the day, and the Senior Staff easily bested the soon-to-be-minted Junior Staff in the tug-o-war.

At week four, the halfway mark of the summer was upon us and our greatest challenges were behind us. The Den began murmurs of squad picks, the Yearlings readied to receive their white pocketed shirts, and the first early morning rows in Mowglis' new crew shells brought what felt like the first "regular Mowglis days" of the summer. Mr. Hart's "stump the storyteller" reminded the boys that there's more to him than a raised eyebrow. Panther conquered the challenging Mahoosuc Notch, and the Yearlings reclaimed the Presidential Traverse they were denied in 2021. The talent show that ended the week bid a fond farewell to the four-weekers. Ned Hanrahan once again wowed us with his acrobatic antics, the Yearling's staff impersonations had us all in stitches, and the musical talents of the boys seemed endless. The Yearlings formally joined the staff, and though Mr. Rorke couldn't be there in person he was there in spirit.

Week five marked the “beginning of the end” of the Mowglis summer. Mt. Washington Squad and Gopher Squad departed with 10 boys each, a much-anticipated return after the Huts’ closures last season. Back at camp, the boys made the best of every minute. Our fresh batch of Cubs arrived, 20 to be exact. Mama Boone had to make use of the Cub tent to fit them all!

Crew Week (and our sixth week) saw the camp divided into Red and Blue. Mr. Garcia led the mighty Blue, and Mr. DeVelasco the cunning Red. As the boys learned their cheers, Racing Crews took on their roles with gusto, building excitement in members of the Pack of all ages. Crew Coaches Patrick and Liam Jenkins welcomed the return of former coach Ms. Mira League. With three forms and Racing Crew, the boats scarcely made their way back into Waingunga during the week. Thursday saw the Racing Crews depart to Wellington, as the Junior Staff set to building the bonfire. For the first time in three summers, Mowglis was able to welcome guests to join in on the excitement! During the bonfire and pep rally, alumni and families watched their boys faithfully represent their crews.

Crew Day saw over 400 sets of eyes fixed on the boats, with countless guests watching from their own boats as well as from the shore. It was the largest audience in years, rivaling the centennial in attendance. The Third form went to Red, the Second form to Red, and with a delay due to lightning, the First form went to Blue, avoiding what could have been a sweep. The undaunted Cubs saw their own victory go to Blue, evening the score for the day. As the Racing Crews took off, Red was in the lead, the cheers, drums, and horns pulsed from the shore, urging the boys on as they pulled with all their strength. As the boats neared the finish line, the race was neck and neck. Only a few boat lengths from the finish, the Blue boat pulled ahead. Two cannon blasts marked a BVD for 2022! As the winning oar was raised, the colors receded, and the focus turned to the evening’s entertainment ... and BBQ. Despite the heat, the weekend was a resounding success, and with our visitors having departed, the week culminated in a regular Mowglis Sunday.

The final week was jarringly normal at its start. Regular Mowglis days ended with lengthy staff announcements of Ribbons and other accolades, to the cheers of the boys celebrating their friends’ hard work. Those precious few “regular Mowglis Days” gave way to the summer’s end. Starting with the Cardigan Assault on Wednesday, every member of the Mowglis Pack met and shared watermelon atop Mt. Cardigan. The following evening saw the transformation of the Dining Hall for Graduates’ Dinner, and with heartfelt toasts and more than a few misty eyes, we began the process of bidding farewell to the Graduates of 2022. Friday saw the welcoming of 13 new inductees to the Inner Circle, all while the final ribbons of the summer were secured, graduation requirements completed, and tournament winners crowned.

The final Saturday of the summer always brings with it a strange juxtaposition. Packed bags adorning porches contrasted by the familiar melodies of the piano in Gray Brothers Hall floating down through the pines. Tetherball matches, with its division of “court” and “direction,” while we prepare to sit together for our last dinner of the summer. Beaming faces of Graduates completing their final requirements, blistered hands making their way to the final Soak, the resounding call of “Gazunga.” The rapid pace of the summer culminated in the slow meander of Candleboats through the waters of Newfound Lake.

A summer ended as it should: with happy boys, a tired staff, the theft of the Swimmer’s Raft, and the promise of another amazing Mowglis summer on the horizon.

MOWGLIS 2022, WE SALUTE YOU!

-JAMES HART

BUGLING

7:10 AM - I wake up. I get on socks, I get on shoes. I grab my trumpet from next to my bed and I make my way to the writing porch.

7:14 AM - I'm outside Den in the half-light, blowing into my trumpet to warm it up. I check my watch one last time and prepare myself. The notes ring out across the camp as the dorms wake themselves to reveille. Another day has begun at Mowglis, where the days are never short and the weeks are never long.

DENTON MONTGOMERY

ARCHERY

Today is Sunday, it has been one week since dropoff. I have Archery as my first industry. I got my golden bowstring two days ago. I also got my intermediate form in half an industry period which I am proud of.

HEYWARD WILCOX

STAINED GLASS

In the craft shop, I have been making a stained glass star. Today I soldered the pieces together. It is red, yellow, blue, and green. Tomorrow I'm going to put the hooks on it so that it can hang up. It was hard but worth it.

FOREST PHELPS

FIRST WEEK

This week was awesome! I got 12 requirements in rowboating. My friend also got his rowboating safety. I can't wait for the summer ahead.

JACK LEARY

BEST COUNSELORS

When I got to camp there were good counselors, but there were two counselors that were especially FUN! One, Mr. Harding, and two, Mr. P. Jenkins. Mr. Harding because you can always find something to talk about with him, and Mr. Harding did my favorite club, the Bronze Ribbon. Mr. Jenkins is fun.

DRU ROBBINS

THE FIRST DAY OF CAMP

Missing the first day of camp is always hard. You miss reuniting with your dormmates, meeting new counselors, and getting in the Mowglis spirit, but I don't mind that, I mind not having a laundry bag.

WILL GREVEN

CLUBS

Today is Sunday, which means today we have Clubs. For Clubs, the choices were bronze ribbon, soccer, knockout, music, and more (P.S. Bronze ribbon is getting a tan), but I chose soccer, and I scored two goals and played very well.

BEN WILCOX

WAINGUNGA ROCK

Two days ago, my friend Jake and I went out to Waingunga Rock while rowboating and pushed each other off. It was fun, and earlier today we did Clubs. I did the diving club, that was fun, too.

ZELLAN TULLY

HONOR, INTEGRITY

Today during Clubs, I saw a member of the pack take a Cub under his wing. He was ready and excited to play gaga, but instead, he opted to impart his Denite wisdom. Nobody told him to, nobody asked, no offer of reward. A wordless integrity, becoming of a true Mowgli man.

MR. A. COSGROVE

BRONZE RIBBON CLUB

Today, Mr. Redling and I carefully curated the continuation of the bronze ribbon club. When running such an exquisite club, we went on to gather only the chilliest of campers allowing for the execution of some prime bronze ribbonage. After harnessing my inner originality, I decided to add some tunes to the mix to max out the chill meter with ease. They say time flies when you're chillin', and boy did it fly. The piercing all-out cry disturbed our vitamin D-age, but all chill things come to an end. Well, until next week bronze ribbon boys.

MR. HARDING

SUNDAYS

Today we had Clubs and it's my favorite part of Sunday (besides picnic supper) and normally is always fun and one of the things to look forward to every week.

CONNOR THOEL

THE FIRST WEEK OF CAMP

The first day when we arrived, we wore masks and did six hours of relax. The second day I forgot but as the days go by no Toomai camper can beat me in tetherball. And then industries started. My first industry is canoeing, my second industry is archery. Those are the two ribbons I am going for. On trip day we hiked Welch and Dickey. We had to stop a lot, but we made it and then continued with the week. Then today I did tetherball club with Mr. Aronesty, TJ, and Anton, and now I'm listening to cringy music and writing my Howl, and the best counselor is Mr. Harding. Tomorrow is the 4th of July. Camp has been super fun today, we also have chapel and picnic supper, and we still have six weeks awaiting.

ADRIAN MORGAN

PLAYING WITH GLASS

It was Clubs and I was making stained glass and it was my first time! At first, I thought I was pretty good until I broke the glass twice. After that I was fine.

MAX PETERKOSKI

THE SOUNDS OF MOWGLIS

When I was in school, they taught me the chirping of birds, the howling of wolves, and even the rustling of trees, but they forgot the sounds of Mowglis.

The sounds of Mowglis are filled with shouts of joy from the Cubs having fun in Baloo Cove, laughter from Toomai, songs in Baloo's dorm, more laughter from the Pantherites, and even endless whispers of stories from Akela, not to mention the war cries in Den getting ready for Crew Week.

These are the sounds of Mowglis, a magical environment full of life and nature waiting to be discovered.

MR. MIGUEL AYUSO

CREW

This week I tried crew for the first time, and it was great. But, when I tried to row in a single boat I fell off into the water and it was freezing, but it was very fun!

DIEGO SAENZ

AXEMANSHIP

I have found Axemanship very enjoyable. I have already chopped two logs in half. The second one flipped when I split it. I still have had no luck with splitting logs, but I will keep trying. Axemanship is fun and I like it a lot.

CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

SINGING DURING DINNER

Last night was Taco Night. Things were going normally, and we (Baloo) were singing at the table. One of the counselors at the Director's Table told us to stop, so we did. But five minutes later, the Yearlings started singing "It was Friday Night When We Set Sail" and the whole dining hall joined in. After that, Mr. Hart made a compliment to everyone, so we continued to sing songs. We sang Den, Panther, and then Den again. It was a great meal.

VICTOR MA

A DIFFERENT PLACE

I came to camp thinking it was gonna be like all the other camps I have gone to. I have realized that I was wrong. This is probably the most unique and original camp I have gone to.

NICHOLAS ROHATYN

WEEK ONE

For the first week, I did a lot of Crew. It is my favorite thing to do because I want to do rowing outside of camp, and it is all because of Mr. L. and P. Jenkins. They are my favorite counselors in camp. I am excited to finish my turtle dock in woodworking.

RYLAND CASE

THE WOLF'S PAW

I really want my wolf's paw. I don't really know why, but it's probably because of watching Eric Beckford and Soto walk up to receive their award last Mrs. Holt's Day. Before then I wanted it, but seeing the pride on their faces, a look that comes from earning something through hard, hard work, made me desperately want it. And I'm going to get it. Nothing's going to stop me. I'll keep you posted.

ISAAC SPRUNG

WHITE WATER KAYAKING

On Wednesday we went white water kayaking with Mr. Robbins and Ms. Arin. First, we launched and went down our first rapid. Next, we learned how to move across the river while being in a rapid. Lastly, we learned how to surf a rapid and went on our biggest rapid, the Iron Bridge. The rapid had a horizon and was super fun.

LANE WARNICK

STAFF HUNT

Tuesday was staff hunt. I think staff hunt is one of the best camp activities. It's when all the staff hide. They can go anywhere in camp. Then all the campers try to find them. I found Mr. Cosgrove and Ms. Cat and tagged Mr. Hernandez and Ms. Cat. Johnny climbed up a tree to tag someone and Jake tagged Mr. Salo. Baloo won, and the prize was an inspection point. That has been the best thing this week.

PRESTON MORGAN

OFF TO A GREAT START

The summer of 2022 is off to an incredible (although certainly not without obstacles) start. Staff and campers alike have come from all over, returning and new, excited to make this summer one for the books. And while some of the Pack have had to make some adjustments, no great Mowglis summer comes without hardships. As we really hit our stride, remember to follow the Golden Rule, and Good Hunting!

MR. P. JENKINS

FIRST WEEK

It has been a week since I first arrived at camp, but it feels like it's been five weeks. Time warps when you're in camp, it's weird. Den just came back from a pack trip with a few nice views and an amazing spot to cliff jump, and I am looking forward to graduating this year.

SEBASTIAN PHANEUF

WHITE WATER KAYAKING

On Wednesday I went white water kayaking with Mr. Robbins, Ms. Arin, Lane, Johnny, and Adrian. It was very fun. We went down Class 1 and Class 2 rapids. I was a bit nervous at first but in the end, I wanted to go back to the top and go again. I hope that I can go whitewater kayaking again this summer.

HIRO NISHINO

MY FIRST REQUIREMENT

Last Monday, during canoeing, I got my first requirement ever, which was swapping positions with the other person in my canoe. Just seeing the black sharpie fill out a requirement next to my name filled me with pride. This was not my first year, but last year I was in Cubs, where you couldn't get requirements. I can't wait to get more.

CHRIS LOCKHART

KAYAKING

I did kayaking today. Eric Beckford was trying to make a double-decker paddle board, but he kept failing. When he got on it he kept on falling off.

P.S. Blue crew will win this year, BVD.

MYLES HERNANDEZ

SOCCER CLUB

I chose soccer and so did my friends Ben, Dylan, Heyward, Leo, Adrian, Armand, and Forest. We were all split up into two teams. I was with Heyward, Ben, and Dylan. Ben and Heyward basically carried the whole team. Ben scored two goals and so did Heyward. I only scored one, and it was really fun.

KINGSLEY NWAISE

THE FIRST WEEK OF CAMP

The first week of camp has been a little slow but super fun. I'm working towards my Inner Circle this year and I already have two ribbons. Seven people in Akela have Covid right now so they're detached from the Pack temporarily. I'm excited for the weeks ahead and lots more fun.

JOHNNY DEMOPOULOS

A GREAT WEEK

This week has been really good. I've done loads of different activities and am having fun with everyone. I've chosen two industries at the waterfront which I think are pretty sick! People here at Mowglis are also really kind to everyone, and being that this is my first year, people have welcomed me very well and I am very happy. :) Camp so far has been really good, and I hope it continues like this for more years to come.

JAIME PEREZ

CLUBS

Today for Clubs Mr. Drennan hosted a hangout club. We read SCPs and it was really fun! I can't wait for Clubs next week!

GEORGE SAROSI

FIRST WEEK

The first week went by really fast. I didn't get many requirements this week because we went on a three-day pack trip. I've only had two first-industry periods this week. The summer will speed up though.

TYLER GOSS

THE BALDFACES

This week we went on a trip to the Baldfaces. Going into it I thought that the trip would be easy because there was supposed to be a lot of ridge walking. I was wrong. The trip was very strenuous, and there wasn't as much ridge walking as thought. The last day was amazing. We went cliff jumping, and I jumped too. The water was freezing. Newfound Lake will always feel warm to me now.

ARI UNGER

KING OF WAINGUNGA

One day at Camp Mowglis, I get into a rowboat with my friend Zellan and head to the infamous Waingunga Rock. It takes us a very short 10 minutes to get to the rock and we rest. Me and Zellan decided "Hey, let's get on the rock and push each other off!" So, we end up doing that for a long time until boats in. I am the king!

JAKE "THE KING OF WAINGUNGA" MANNO

THE FIRST HOWL OF THE YEAR

This is my first howl of Den year. Quite a few things have happened. The Baldface hike was fun. On day three we stopped for two hours to cliff jump and it was so much fun. We also went to Five Guys and I got a double bacon cheeseburger. It was immaculate. Also, on day one when we were getting water, Cooper stepped on a frog in his bare feet and started screaming! Mr. Robbins got a lacrosse net for us too, and that is great.

NATHANIEL BERGEN

SPENCER'S ACCIDENTAL SWIM

On the large slippery rock by the campsite, Spencer stood,
Apparently, the moss felt a little more than rude,
For slowly, Spencer's shoes lost their trusty grip,
And as expected, he began to slip.
Spencer slid down the rock with a wham, whack, and pow!
And emerged from the water, drenched, and simply yelled "ow!"

HORATIO WILCOX

FUN FIRST WEEK

So far camp has been fun. Today I chose Magic the Gathering Club and it reminded me of a nerd store that I go to at home. My fencing industry is fun and I think I'm learning a lot.

GAGE MCMURRAY

THE PLAN

This year has had a good start and I have a plan to end my final summer at Mowglis. I will get my Kaa by getting my golden anchor and rowboating ribbon, then I'll get my orange ribbon, then I'll end the year with a BVD.

ZACH OLSON

FUN AT CAMP

Today we are going to have a barbeque night, and on Wednesday we are going on a three-day trip, and I hope it is going to be fun!

ALONSO BENAVIDES

CLUBS

Today we had Clubs. This is my first year here, so it was new to me. I chose the knockout club because I THOUGHT I was good, but I wasn't. It turns out there are a lot of other big kids. But I still won a game!

ASHOK CERWINSKI

ASSASSIN

Recently Denton started another game of Assassin. If you don't know what it is, it's a game where you are given a person, place, and thing, and you need to get that person with that thing at that place. Sort of like Clue, but you are the criminal. Because the thing and place are random, Assassin is different.

THOMAS CHAMBERLAIN

A WEEK TO REMEMBER

The first week of camp is usually the most boring, although this week proved that wrong. We embarked on our first pack trip of the year on Wednesday. My group was great. It was so much fun!! My highlights of the trip were the emerald pool, Spencer falling down the waterfall (he was okay in the end), and the beautiful hiking. This was definitely a week to remember.

NATE GREVEN

A GOOD FIRST WEEK

This week was my first week at camp. On the second day, we had a swim test, and I was so surprised, I got intermediate! Then we had to choose industries. I chose mountain biking and riflery. In mountain biking, it took a while for me to get used to it because the bike was too big. On the first day of riflery, I got a good score.

DYLAN HAUGHTON

THE BALDFACES

Den went on a pack trip and hiked the Baldfaces. On the first day, we hiked and got to the campsite pretty late. On the second day, we traversed down pure rock for .7 miles, which was fun. At the campsite, the water source had dried up and our counselor salvaged water from a puddle. The third and final day of the hike was the best because I went cliff jumping for the first time at Emerald Springs. Then, eventually, we got to camp. It had been a demanding few days of hiking but all in all, the cliff jumping made it worth it.

RAPHAEL UNGER

LIGHTS...CAMERA...SHOOT!

Yesterday I got two more qualifying targets, then I got one more. This leaves me with nine qualifying targets! I will get my first bar, I can't wait!

WILL SCHLACKS

MY FIRST WEEK

Nothing can describe the joy of being able to pass on my love of fencing to the campers. It's one of the most fulfilling things I've ever done. I can't wait for the rest of the summer!

CAT ST. HILAIRE

CLUBS

We just made Clubs, I have chosen the soccer club, with Mr. Lloyd, Mr. Hernandez, and Juan Saenz-Yearling//JS. It was a good match; I scored two goals and made the assist of the match goal. It was a nice morning.

DIEGO LARREA

TUBING CLUB

For Clubs I did tubing with Mr. Gulitti. IT WAS INCREDIBLE! Up and down, and up and down. Even in the choppiest wake and in Bigfoot's (Gulitti's) circle of death, Kayshav and I held on!

GEORGE SAROSI

THE RAREST LEGENDARY TITLE

Camp has flown by so fast. The ribbons I'm going for are archery, canoeing, and maybe mountain biking. Tetherball is super fun (and gaga ball). Today is Sunday and table boys just blew, so goodbye!

ADRIAN MORGAN

THE BALDFACES

When we saw the tent site sign, we were so happy and relieved. The first day of hiking the Baldfaces was almost over. Suddenly, a wild, shirtless teenager showed up in the middle of the path, stick in his hands and a threatening look in his eyes. All the Denites and I were confused and uncomfortable. As I got close to him, he said "I'm just waiting for a friend." "Okay," I answered. He kept staring at us while we continued on our way until we couldn't see each other anymore.

MR. BRAVO

AKELA'S QUARANTINE

Quarantining is not that bad. As you may know, Akela had to be quarantined because half of the dorm got Covid. The non-Covid people stayed in Gray Brothers, while the people with Covid stayed in the dorm. You probably think that staying in isolation is boring and bad, but it was actually fun. We had our meals delivered to us, played D&D and Magic, and had the building to ourselves.

JUSTIN LEON

DEN PROJECT

An important part of every Den year is the Den Project, an improvement to camp that can be exclusive, so a Den-only gym would be acceptable as a project. We are currently thinking about possible Den projects, including Den Hydro, Den Gym (improved), Gaga ball collection fence so the balls aren't always rolling down the hill, fixing the stairs between Gray Brothers and the Lower Mines.

THOMAS CHAMBERLAIN

THREE INSPECTION POINTS

Yesterday, July 9, 2022, campers were given the opportunity to receive three inspection points. The terms were that the best dorm would get the points. This was a lie. The result of this is controversy. Den spent three hours cleaning the dorm. We re-did all of the bureaus and hand-scrubbed the floor. The wood was reflecting sunlight! We even showed true Mowglis Spirit and helped other dorms clean, but we were told it was "over the top." We all knew we would win. Our hearts dropped when we heard that the Cubs won. This is unjust.

OLLIE MCGREEVY

CRAZY CLIFF ISLAND

This week Baloo went to Cliff Island. It took three hours of canoeing to get to the Island and after unpacking we played Man Hunt. On the second day, I found a dead carp, put it on a stick, and ran around the campsite. After that, we hiked small and big Sugarloaf, and after went to Wellington Beach.

LANE WARNICK

AXEMANSHIP

I am having fun at Camp. Besides the unfair three-point inspection, I have enjoyed the summer. I am especially enjoying Axemanship, even though I have taken a full week to make a crack in a log while splitting it, I feel I am getting better at it. I have already made my axe and sharpened it, and I have chopped two logs. Axemanship is fun and I can't wait for what other things the summer will bring.

CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

MY FIRST WEEK

This is my first week. It was good, we hiked and played football. That was the week.

LUCAS LUGT

NEW FRIEND

I have a friend and his name is Kez.
He is really nice, and he is so good at art. He is so cool!

XAVIER MARTIN

ONE STEP, ONE FALL, AND ONE SUCCESS

One step as in when you are standing there wobbling, staring ahead step by step. One fall because this one kid (I don't know his name), when he fell it wasn't pretty. He first stepped and missed, and it is going to hurt where he hit. One success because I did the slackline without much help, actually no help, right before I took a good tumble.

WILL SCHLACKS

PRESENTING THE EVIDENCE

As a member of the 2022 Den, I hereby declare an injustice done to our dorm. The evidence is clear and concrete:

1. We helped other dorms clean up
2. Floors were mopped, rooves were swept, towels were folded, and beds were kept to the highest standard...THE COIN TEST.

By the time we had finished, the floors shone like the lake on a summer's day, the roof sparkled like Mr. Lloyd's eyes before the bad news was broken, and the towels creased like the shirts in our bureaus. Yet, after all of this, three points were awarded to the Cubs.
The evidence lies before you, it is up to you to make a difference. Take this as a request to reconsider, for your own good, Mr. Lloyd.

HORATIO WILCOX

CRAZY WEEK

This week has been crazy, with all of the cases doubling and industry periods cruising by.
I have really high hopes for the rest of the summer. The trips this summer have been way better than last year. We went up Crawford Notch on Thursday, and I'm really excited about the CT Lakes trip.

SPENCER DRAZEK

QUARANTINE

After we got back from our Akela basecamp trip, we found out that five kids from our dorm had Covid. The kids who didn't have Covid went down to the Lower Ballfield and set up tents and called it tent city. It was fun and we played some Akela Bowls (football games). Then, I found out I had Covid. I moved back into the dorm, and we watched a lot of movies and had lots of snacks. It's been a crazy week, but also a fun one.

GYAN CERWINSKI

HUNGRY

The trip this week was fun, we played a lot of soccer. But we all were so hungry all the time except when we got fed. Sleeping was hard too, it was so loud. I loved the s'mores and I got a good amount! We played hide and go-seek tag, I had great camouflage.

DRU ROBBINS

RANGO

Saturday night at colors we got ready for the movie. Once we sat down, we had to wait forever for the movie to start. Finally, once the movie started, I could not see it because of how light it was outside, but once it was dark, I was being eaten alive by mosquitos. After that, we listened to a scary story and then went to sleep.

MAX PETERKOSKI

CAMPING FOOD

You eat some really weird stuff while camping. I went camping on Cliff Island recently with my dorm. First, we had smushed pancakes. Then, we had raw ramen noodles (they tasted like crackers). I also had a tuna tortilla! And that's not all. We had plain tomato sauce on rice, and for the grand finale...on the last day of camping, kids raided the cooler. They grabbed chocolate cookies, crackers, etc. Someone grabbed a bag of chicken strips and Jake had a genius idea. We roasted them over the campfire like s'mores! Grilled chicken. Man, camping is weird.

VICTOR MA

ARCHERY

In archery I have my golden bowstring, it was pretty easy. I got my intermediate form in half an industry period. Right now, I am going for my advanced form. I am going for my golden arrow and my yellow ribbon.

HEYWARD WILCOX

FOOTBALL

I did football for Clubs, it was so much fun. Anyways, I am having so much fun at camp.

MYLES HERNANDEZ

FRANCONIA RIDGE

This week I went on a pack trip, it was Franconia Ridge. The hike on the first day was steep but not that fun and the second day was seven miles with the nicest views I have ever seen, and the coolest ridge walk in NH. The third day was good. It was a very fun trip.

ZACH OLSON

BASE CAMP

This week we went on the Cardigan Base Camp Trip. It was so fun! The only thing that wasn't fun was that the whole first day it rained and we were always hungry. We played soccer, capture the flag, football, and had a wrestling match. It was really fun, but I can't wait until we go to Belle Island.

FOREST PHELPS

CAMP QUARANTINE

In the year 2022, the Akela Dorm had to quarantine. Here is a quick summary:

Day 1: The negative people set up tents on the Lower Ballfield. We called it Fort George or Forge for short. After, we played dodgeball and played mafia.

Day 2: We played jackpot with a frisbee and held the first Akela Bowl (which was basically touch football but with Akela).

Day 3: It was the 4th of July, so we held another Akela bowl, and we had many Jolly Ranchers, because Mr. Robbins had us make a list of all the candy we wanted, and he got it for us.

Day 4: We had an amazing water balloon fight.

I would like to dedicate this Howl to Mr. McGreevy and Mr. Jenkins.

CRAZY AKELA

Hmmm...It is only the second week of camp and Akela '22 is already looking to be crazier than ever. We have gotten Covid, spicy food challenges have already started, and the dorm has been rearranged into two drastic sides. While I know there is more craziness to come, it is still fun to think about what has already happened.

RAAGHAV MITTAL

CLIFF ISLAND TRIP

I had a fun time at Cliff Island. We had a great time at Wellington Beach, splashing the rest of the kids in my dorm. We got meatballs and burned them on sticks, overcooking them a lot. When we were making pancakes, we used bug spray to cook them faster. I always love going on base camp trips because my dorm makes it the best experience ever.

PEYTON ELIE

A WEIRD TRANSITION

Half of our dorm got Covid so it was kind of weird staying inside all day, but we did get a TV. But it's finally been five days so we can go back into society. Who knows what will happen this week? P.S. We get the Cub dining hall for a few days.

CLIFF ISLAND

The first night was awful due to the rain. When I woke up, my side of the tent had been flooded. The hiking and the canoeing were very fun, though.

MICAH ELLIOTT

TUBING

Today we went tubing. During my first turn, it was slow and calm. After, I went again, quickly that time. It was an amazing thrill and I almost got thrown off. I can't wait for the next tubing trip!

ELLIOT LUCAS

GAGA

Every free time I go to the gaga pit. I usually get out first, but sometimes I go to the finals. Preston wins most of the time, but the Denites sometimes win. I really like gaga, it's my second favorite besides tetherball.

LEO PINCUS

COVID

This week was pretty good except for getting Covid. Otherwise, it was awesome. We got to go to Cliff Island and we had so much fun. Today I even got to go slacklining, and it was one of the best experiences ever.

ROHAN BHAGAT

RIFLERY

I got my Promarksman and I'm very happy now! I'm trying to get my Marksman.

KINGSLEY NWAISE

THE DETERIORATION OF CAMP

You might be wondering why my Howl is named this. The reason is the Cubs got three inspection points. Joe Sprung said, "We slept for one hour and got in parade rest." which is messed up. Why you say? We spent three hours cleaning. Honestly, Den should have gotten it. So that is the deterioration of Camp Mowglis.

ARMAND PHANEUF

MAGIC AND DEATH IN QUARANTINE

Quarantine started right after the Cliff Island trip. Apparently, a quarter of our dorm got Covid. That was a bummer because I had to skip Industries and all of the other fun stuff. The only benefits were ignoring bugle calls and Chapel and getting contraband. We had a bunch of free time, so we played football, had a water balloon fight, and played a bunch of other sports on the Lower Ballfield. We moved from the dorm (Lower Ballfield garden) to Gray Brother's Hall, the dorm. When we were trapped in Gray Brothers hall, we got to play a lot of Magic the Gathering. Such a good card game. The only thing that kept me going was card games. We also created an assassin game and George and Raaghav are the officials of the game. I can't wait to win.

LEARNING TO UNLEARN

In my 22 years of life, I have always had the need to have everything under control and perfectly planned, however, sometimes destiny puts people in your way that makes you change 360 degrees.

Thank you, Mr. Hernandez, Mr. Bravo, and Mr. Sitjar for pushing me to get out of my comfort zone and enjoy a trip without having anything planned, just as they say here “just go with the flow.”

It will always remain in my mind these long conversations under the moonlight, sleeping with the sounds of the waves and waking up with the sunrise over the horizon of the infinite sea.

And that is what life is all about, challenging ourselves every new day to get out of our comfort zone and enjoy the wonderful experiences that are out there waiting for us.

MR. AYUSO

CLUBS

Today I went to the paddle boarding and kayaking club with Mr. Ayuso, Mr. Hernandez, Mr. Bravo, and Mr. McGreevy. It was so fun because the water was so warm and we were doing wars with the paddles. My favorite part was when I did a race with Diego Larrea and I won, so he pushed me into the water, and it was so much fun. I hope I can push him into the water another day...

DIEGO SAENZ

MANHUNT MANIA

This week we went to Cliff Island. The first day was wet and boring. When the second day arrived, we hiked little and big Sugarloaf. When we got back to Wellington Beach, we swam for a little bit and then canoed back to the Island. When we got back, we played Manhunt. Connor T., Mikah, and I hid by the rocks on the shore. The round lasted so long, but in the end we were tagged by Mr. Mida.

JACK LEARY

THE GREAT DROUGHT

It was the Panther pack trip of Franconia Ridge. On day two we just left after lunch and met with the other group, and we were about to go up Garfield Mountain when we realized that we were all out of the water and we had a steep mountain to go upon. Luckily, we found a lake, but to fill up the bottle we had to get our socks wet and none of us wanted to, so JT went in and filled up two bottles, one for him and the other for Zach. Then we started to climb this gruesome, steep mountain and it was like being tortured and you're about to die but you don't. There was a lot of complaining, mainly by me, but we made it to the top and after a quick break, we headed to the camp on the other side. The next day we accidentally took a wrong turn and had to travel an extra two miles. Luckily, we had water, and it was a flat and not really rocky area. But we made it through and got to the car and went to eat at McDonald's.

GAGE MCMURRAY

MASSIVE WIN

Though yesterday wasn't the best day for Den, I did get a massive win. After almost a week of no clothes, I finally did it. I got my clothes back and now I have a bureau full of clothes, and that's pretty sweet!

DEAREST AND MOST BELOVED HOWL

This week has been sick. I got my camping ribbon, and I'm very, very close to my Nature ribbon. The Franconia Loop pack trip was great. The views on Mt. Garfield, Mt. Lafayette, and Mt. Liberty were stunning, as was the ridge walking. Afterward, we went to McDonald's, where Iker drank so much soda that he nearly died of a seizure. Today in Clubs, I did flag football where I had an awesome time. I played with future NFL players Ckyson, Horatio, and Zane.

ISAAC SPRUNG

HISTORY IS DOOMED TO REPEAT ITSELF

One day at Mowglis, I read my brother's Howls from last year. It was about how they had a "rap battle" with Onaway. I was astonished by the circumstances and hoped I would have an event as interesting as that. Now, my hope has been fulfilled. On Baloo's Cliff Island trip, on the last day, we had an event. Two girls across the stream were chilling there. Jake and Zellan had the idea to yell at them, and they responded. We talked, and they talked. Eventually, they left, and at that time, I realized that history had repeated itself.

KAYSHAV MITTAL

TUBING

Today, I went tubing and I had super fun. Eliot and I stayed on the longest. We almost fell off. I can't wait to do it again!

ZELLAN TULLY

TURTLES IN WAVES

This week in mountain biking we explored trails and rode them to see if we could ride them or improve them. It took a while to find one because we had to go down and then back up. Finally, we found a trail and agreed on a name. The name was Turtles in Waves.

DYLAN HAUGHTON

SECOND WEEK

This has been an interesting second week of Camp Mowglis. It started out strong with me getting many camping requirements. We even got marshmallows on Friday with Mr. Beaver. Unfortunately, having dishes on both Friday and Saturday along with the inspection point disappointment left a slightly downtrodden note to the end of the week. However, that is only a momentary disruption to the three scoops Den. We will prevail.

THOMAS PATINO

A GREAT DAY TO BE AT MOWGLIS

My time at Mowglis has been short, but amazing. From working with the Cubs, who think they own the place, to the Den, who are “mostly” mature enough to pass as college students, my time has been packed with indescribable joy. Watching young boys developing into strong and competent leaders and having passionate conversations among themselves shows their understanding of the world. However, these boys and young adults have much to learn about the world; also, much to learn about themselves, while they are developing their own personal identities. All I have to say is, it’s a great day to be at Mowglis.

MR. MIDA

SUNDAY CHILL

Today was the best Sunday I have had at Mowglis. At Clubs, I chose paddle-surf with Mr. Bravo, Mr. Hernandez, Mr. Ayuso, and Mr. McGreevy. I went with all my friends from Panther, and it was very good. We went to Waingunga rock and then did a bit of bronze ribbon paddle. :) Good company and a good day.

JAIME PEREZ

THE SILVER RIBBON

If you ever ask about the silver ribbon, it is very common to be told that it is one of the easiest ribbons in Camp. But, as the years have gone by, that statement has become very, very false. The Rowboating ribbon is extreme. It will push you to your absolute limits. And the most important skill to bring you through it all? Patience.

TYLER GOSS

THE FIRST TWO WEEKS

Today was the end of the first two weeks of Camp. I was really excited to go into crafts. I am trying to earn my black ribbon. I'm still far away, but I'm thriving to get there happily. Oh also, I will beat you in gaga, Mr. Martinez!

KEZ UDOKA

UNEXPECTED WIN

Today my friend and I played soccer in Clubs! It was really fun, and my team won. I was striker and defense. I'm surprised my team won. I thought we were gonna lose because it was tied at the end, but we did really good.

LEO PINCUS

GETTING CLOSE

This week I've been getting closer and closer to my canoeing ribbon. I have around 10 requirements left. I'm also getting close to my mountain biking ribbon. I think I'll get them both by the end of the summer, giving me Inner Circle.

JOHNNY DEMOPOULOS

A SPECIAL PLACE

This past week the Den went on the Connecticut Lakes trip. On our way, Mr. Conklin decided we would stop at a general store called Foster's Crossroads. We all thought "Okay, this place just has the same name as him, shouldn't take long." So, we drove on for another 20 minutes. Frankly, I forgot we were even supposed to stop. As Mr. Conklin pulled the van off the highway, the trees that surrounded the granite slab that was the parking lot moved to reveal a metal fence around a large pile of rubble. As I watched Mr. Conklin mourn the loss of a place he had gone his whole life, I realized that places we love sometimes don't wait around for us and that things often change. Over my six-year career at Mowglis, I have realized that Mowglis is one of those rare places, somewhere I hold so close to my heart, that will never change, and never lose what makes Mowglis so special to so many of us. And so, embrace the few weeks we have left here, whether you are a Cub or a Denite, time flies by here and before you know it, your days here will be numbered, and you'll be shaking Mr. Robbins' hand and receiving your Graduates Medal. Make the most of your days here, and enjoy every last minute because this truly is such a special place.

HORATIO WILCOX

WATERFRONT DUTY

I used to think Waterfront Duty was boring. I was wrong. When I was cleaning Waingunga, I found a brown paper bag that had two chocolate bars in it, so I took one and gave the other one away.

DAN DROS

RYLAND LIKES TURTLES

If you know Ryland Case, you know he likes turtles. This story involves turtling. It is first Industries on Friday. I have been temporarily reassigned to sailing. Ryland and I are getting onto the sunfish and setting it up. We unclip ourselves and sail out of the bay. Then the boat starts to tip. It turns slowly and starts to capsize. "Okay," I thought. "I am standing up on a sailboat while the entire thing is sideways." What should I do to survive? A. Jump onto the sail. B. Climb over the boat as it flips. C. Remain neutral. I chose option A. The sail is already approaching the water, so I jump and my fall into the water is cushioned by the sail. I swim away from the boat as Ms. Arin, George Sarosi, and one of the Leon twins pulled up in the 420. I get into the 420 and Mr. Leon hops out to help flip/turtle the boat. They eventually fix it and we go back into the bay. Quite the adventure for "Funday Friday!"

ACTION PACKED WEEK

This week was packed with lots of events. Landsports Day, and there was our trip day to Wellington Beach. "It was a very long hike," everyone said as we came down to our area. We spent the time playing beach volleyball and wrestled everyone for the ball in the water. The temperature of the water was very warm compared to Soak. That is why I went in the water for all of the time. On our way back, in my canoe were Hiro, Dan, and I. We were paddling across the lake into the winds, so we had to use extra strength to get back to Kaa. It was a very tiring day, but I enjoyed all of it.

ANTON FALCONER

CLUBS

Today at Clubs I did the Bronze Ribbon. It was pretty fun because I got to jump in, then I talked to my cousin Horatio for a while on the T-dock. It was so much fun, I love Clubs.

BEN WILCOX

THE BALOO TREATY

This week, Baloo made a treaty. Everyone wanted Mr. L. Jenkins in our dorm. The campers gave Mr. Hart a treaty asking for Mr. L. Jenkins to be a Baloo dorm staff in exchange for better behavior. In the end, Mr. Hart agreed, and Mr. L. Jenkins is going to move in.

ELLIOT LUCAS

THINKING ABOUT CREW

Camp is going well, but all I can think about is what form I will get for Crew. If Horatio gets 2nd seat, I could get Racing Crew.

RYLAND CASE

WEEK FOUR

Well, it's already the beginning of week four and honestly, I don't know how to feel. I'm sad that the summer is going by fast, but I'm happy to see my parents soon. I'm excited to see what the rest of the summer will bring.

ZANE TULLY

BACKPACKING TRIP

We went on a backpacking trip these past three days. The last mountain we hiked was my favorite, we were inside a cloud the whole time. This by far was my best and smoothest trip.

JULIAN LEON

NEVER CHANGE

Mowglis never changes; photographs of campers' fathers and grandfathers could have been taken today. The water feels just as good as ever and the bowls and plates are indestructible. It will be around for another 119 years. Mowglis hasn't changed—in a good way—since I was last here, and I am so thrilled to join my brothers old and new. I cannot wait for the next adventures.

MR. K. HALL

BUSY WEEK

We just came back from the Connecticut Lakes trip, and it was great. I only got one good view of a moose, and it looked like a donkey. Most of the trip I spent playing lacrosse. Also, thank you Mr. Robbins for the lacrosse net. It was fun assembling and using it with my friends. One more thing, I won the marathon on Landsports Day, and I had been wanting to win that and be the fastest camper for so long. I'm so happy!

NATHANIEL BERGEN

ROCK CLUB

Today I did rock club. I learned how to play vampire weekend. It was fun! I also met Ethan, a Yearling.

ARMAND PHANEUF

BALOO'S VERSION OF THE TOOMAI SONG

This week, we had a massive rainstorm. There was so much water that a dried-out stream started up again and made a river going down the road. But, most surprisingly, we had a mini Niagra Falls/stream/brook in our backyard, which matches "We have a brook we guard right in our own backyard" from the Toomai song.

FUN AT CAMP

It has been three weeks into camp, and it has been really fun. I got my marksman, and I am making a bucket hat. I am also very excited to hear the psycho priest.

MICAH ELLIOTT

A NEW METHOD

Today during Clubs, Mr. Drennan and I made a new method for solving a 3x3 Rubik's cube. We named it...the best method!

ALEX HAYDEN

THE BIG CLIMB

On Thursday this week, instead of going on a hike, Dru and I went rock climbing. It was my third day ever rock climbing. At the start of the day, I was too scared to climb a 50-foot cliff, then the next cliff was 80 feet. I climbed the whole thing. Then the last climb was 300 feet, and we climbed the whole thing. We saw a hawk at the top and we almost had to go back down and not climb it because it was thundering, but we looked at which way the storm was going and it was going south, so we were good.

ANSON MAGOON

INSIDE A CLOUD

During our Akela pack trip, near the end of the last day, we came upon a wooden tower that we could climb up to see the view. However, we happened to be in a cloud at the top of the building and couldn't see anything except for the wooden structure. I still enjoyed being inside a cloud!

GORDON ANDREWS

CONVERSATIONS

Conversation fluency is an omnipotent skill when mastered, and here at Mowglis, there are infinite ways to practice. Over this last week, I spent three nights speaking with someone I never connected with before. We are from wildly different backgrounds, but still hold a lot of commonalities. So, remember the next time you are sitting next to someone whom you may not know, strike up a conversation. You may not think you will mesh with one another, but sometimes dissonance can be a beautiful sound. Use the time here smartly and try to find harmony in dissonance; there are many chances at Mowglis to practice conversational fluency. Just apply yourself, try something new, and open up to new things. And always remember it's a great day to be at Mowglis!

MR. MIDA

CT LAKES TRIP

Last week Den went on the Connecticut Lakes trip, and we saw two moose. It was really cool to see them. We also woke up one morning to see the sunrise. It was beautiful. The trip itself was a cool trip, and I'm glad I went on it.

RAFI UNGER

FIRST BACKPACKING TRIP!

On Monday, I went on my first-ever backpacking trip. I liked it because the food and the people that made it were amazing, the views were nice, and we hiked through several clouds. Overall, this was definitely my favorite trip so far!

JUSTIN LEON

CLUBS AND TRIP DAY

Today I did the diving and gazunga club. I finally learned how to dive off the diving board. It is very easy when you are not scared to do it. On Thursday for trip day, we canoed to Wellington Beach. We didn't have to do the hike that we were going to do, and we played touch football in the water.

CKYSON WEBSTER

TIME FLIES

I can't believe we're starting the fourth week of camp. Time flies. I feel like I've already done so much, from getting all my Den requirements to going on the Connecticut Lakes or even shooting a shotgun for the first time. Camp has been lots of fun. This Wednesday I'm going on the Mahoosucs with Panther for my brown, and I hope it doesn't rain.

SEBASTIAN PHANEUF

LOOKING BACK

Today for Clubs I went to the library and read the 2021 Howl book. It was pretty interesting to see all of the Howls from 2021. The pictures were pretty cool as well, seeing a lot of faces from last year. Next year, maybe I will look back at this Howl that I made today.

DJ MARSH

A LOT OF FUN

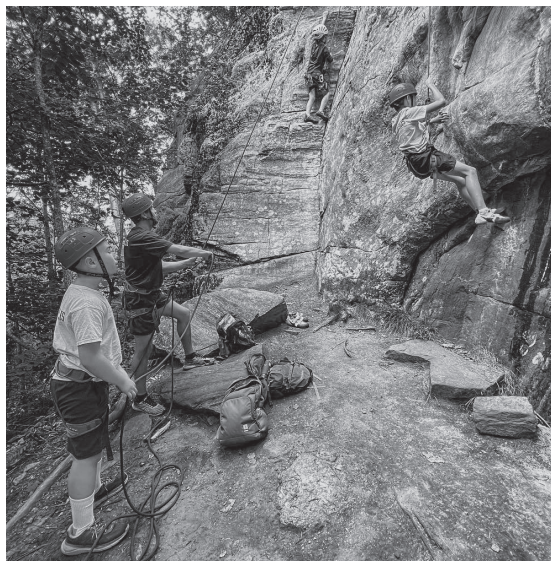

Today is one week until Parent's Weekend. I have decided to stay for seven weeks. I want to do tubing because I did it once and it was fun. Rock climbing also looks fun, I'm hoping to try that. Today was fun at Clubs. I did kayaking but we went canoeing. We swamped it, then pulled it to Baloo Cove.

ARJUN MOHAN

WELLINGTON BEACH

This week we went to Wellington Beach. We canoed for a long time to get there. When we got there, we ate lunch on the beach. Then Mr. Nunez said, "Let's go hiking!" and everyone just wanted to swim and not hike Sugarloaf. When we were about to hike up the mountain we heard thunder, so instead, we played volleyball-King of the Court. It was really fun. Then we went swimming in the lake, playing football with a volleyball. Ckyson was going through everyone until Zach slammed him into the water and got the ball. The trip was fun.

JT MANCHESTER

FUN IN INDUSTRIES

My industries are tennis and archery. I'm close to my golden bowstring. Tennis is my favorite industry, I can't wait 'til I get my ribbon. Archery is fun, too.

LEO PINCUS

THE CLIMBING TRIP

I went on a climbing trip. Anson and I climbed a 50-foot climb, a 70-foot climb, an 80-foot climb, and a 300-foot multi-pitch climb. It was fun!

DRU ROBBINS

BEST WEEK

This week was awesome, it was some of the funnest yet challenging adventures I've participated in. First things first, I went on my first pack trip, and it was really fun. The first day we climbed the easiest mountain and had a ton of fun at the campsite. The second day was extremely challenging and took us five hours to climb. We also couldn't cook food, which was extremely annoying. The third day was all downhill, which was wildly challenging since we kept slipping. After that trip, we could finally not use masks, which was really freeing and so much easier. Then today we started the Pokemon club, which was fun and my first D&D campaign ever.

DONOVAN COOKE

DOCKED

“You’re docked,” is Mr. Gulitti’s favorite phrase. Not because he likes to see the disappointment in children’s eyes, but instead it is his favorite phrase because the docked person(s) has to do a chore somewhere around the waterfront. The reason it is not optimal to get docked is the tiny and unimportant detail that YOU CANNOT GO IN THE WATER OR TAKE A BOAT OUT. “How does one achieve the wonderful feat of getting docked?” I hear you asking. Well, I have the answer: Doing something you should obviously not do, like pushing another person underwater, running on the dock, and blowing up Kaa; doing something that could cause confusion, moving other people’s tags, walking on water, and not tagging out.

THOMAS CHAMBERLAIN

THE BEST, WORST, AND ONLY PIRATES ON NEWFOUND LAKE

I needed my sculling requirement for rowboating and so did Thomas Patino and Ollie McGreevy. Mr. Conklin’s solution to this was to put all three of us in a rowboat and have each of us scull from the swimmer’s raft to the nearest sailboat. While the distance was short, because it was sculling, it took a full industry period for all of us to get the requirement. The three of us sang sea shanties and made pirate noises to pass the time.

DENTON MONTGOMERY

PLYMOUTH MOUNTAIN

On trip day we went up Plymouth Mountain and we saw my parents! They live on the road up to the mountain. I love hiking and I can’t wait for the next hiking day.

FOREST PHELPS

C-FOP

Today in Clubs we learned how to do part of C-fop, which is part of an algorithm for a 3x3 Rubik’s cube.

NED HANRAHAN

HOT SUMMER

This summer has been really hot. Last year it rained a lot, but now it’s hot. During campfire, it’s still cold, and some mornings feel freezing. However, for the majority of the day, it is hot.

SPECIAL SIGN-UP

This is my second year at Camp Mowglis and I don't remember special sign-ups. I did soccer during both sign-up periods and it was so much fun, even though Mr. Lloyd was hurt.

HEYWARD WILCOX

NEW EXPERIENCES

Not just the campers experience new things, but the staff does too! This week I went whitewater kayaking for the first time in my life. It was just level two rapids, but still a lot of fun and definitely something that I will do again!

MR. SCHMETZER

SHOOTING CLUB

I got to go to the trap shooting club and shoot with a shotgun. I got two out of five of the shots. It was a lot of fun and I recommend that you do it!

JESSE FARRAR

Mr. Sitjar, Hiro Nishino, Isaac Sprung, Ari Unger, Zach Olson, Diego Saenz, Thomas Chamberlain, Charles Chamberlain, Denton Montgomery, Thomas Patino, Rafi Unger, Mr. Schmetzer

THE BEST TRIP DAY

So, as this title says, on Thursday we had the best trip day ever. We went to Franconia Falls. As many know Franconia Falls is awesome. There are cliff jumps 20 feet high and natural water slides with drops. It was a three-mile hike there and three miles back, but it was almost completely flat. Overall Franconia Falls is awesome!

DHRUV MOHAN

HAPPY

Camp is fun. Yesterday the four-week campers left, and we had to have one whole week without Mr. Harding. I think he's moving back in, but Mr. P. Jenkins is leaving. I'm one requirement away from my archery ribbon and this week I earned my red ribbon. Now there are only nine campers in Toomai. Happy Happy!

ADRIAN MORGAN

SHOTGUN

Today I shot a shotgun for the first time in my life. It was pretty fun, and although I didn't hit any of the clay things, it was very fun. I'm glad I'm staying for the rest of the summer, so fun!

CARTER YEATMAN

CLUBS

Today I did the Cubing Club. I learned the J perm method and I was with my favorite person, Mr. Conklin.

ARMAND PHANEUF

MAHOOSUCS

Last Thursday I went to the Mahoosucs. It was pretty easy because we got to go down the arm and through the notch. The coolest part of the hike was the notch because there were caves and inside the caves were ice and snow.

CKYSON WEBSTER

TRIP DAY

On trip day Baloo went to hike Mount Morgan and Mount Percival. Everything went fine until we got to the summit of Mount Morgan, we took the wrong trail and went the wrong way before we turned back. But it started raining and there are these ladders we had to climb down, and they were slippery, so we had to go slow. It took a while to get down.

JOHNNIE SOUKUP

MOWGLIS SPIRIT

This week on the third day of the Mahoosucs trip Anton, Isaac, Iker, and I woke up at 4:45 AM to see the sunrise. We ran up the mountain to arrive at the summit in time. We finally made it. I could see the Mowglis spirit in these boys, I'm proud of them.

MR. HERNANDEZ

TOO HOT

This week has been too hot. Besides that, crew tryouts have started, and I have done three tryouts and I feel good. Also, the Lafayette hike was fun, and the Greenleaf hut was amazing. Today I did the clay pigeon shooting club and that was fun too. I hit three out of five shots, the highest in the group.

NATHANIEL BERGEN

DEN GYM

In the Den, we have a gym. It's called the Den gym. We have a list of workouts on the door for each day. On the wash porch, we have 220-pound weights and a 30-pound weight. We should get a pull-up bar soon. Mr. Mida sometimes wakes us up early to do workouts in Gray Brothers.

CHILI IKER CHEESE

On the Mahoosucs one of the meals was chili Iker cheese. Iker is a good chef. Ckyson needs a shirt.

HIRO NISHINO

OPEN WATERFRONT

Yesterday we had an open waterfront while most of the campers were out with their parents. I spent all afternoon on the swimmers' raft enjoying the sun and swimming between the docks. What made that afternoon so special was how everyone was having so much fun. We got ice cream and people went tubing with Mr. Hart. A truly unforgettable day that helped remind us of how great and special the waterfront is.

MR. MARCOS HALL

TIME IS FLYING

We are halfway through camp. It feels like it has only been a couple of days. On one of our hikes, I touched a snake. On another hike, it poured, and we ran down the mountain. I got my red ribbon and I'm only one requirement away from my golden arrow. I'm going to get my Inner Circle.

PRESTON MORGAN

TAGGING OUT

Tagging out might be the easiest hard thing ever. It's so simple and it's so easy to forget. The board is right there, you walk by it, yet so many people forget. I have a theory. All the watermasters have mind powers that make you just walk by. I don't know about you, but I lose consciousness. I didn't ever remember walking by that board. So always keep that in mind when getting out at soak.

SPENCER DRAZEK

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

In the fifth week, there is a tennis tournament that I want to sign up for. I think it will be fun to do and if I get lucky, I might even win. It's almost Crew Week!

ASHOK CERWINSKI

MOUNT LAFAYETTE

The den hiked Mount Lafayette this trip day. We hiked up to Greenleaf Hut. That was the first hut I've ever seen and been inside. It was really cool and the people there were really nice. We went to the summit of Lafayette even though there was a thunderstorm watch. When we were climbing down we heard thunder so we ran back to the hut. Lafayette is now my most recent 4000-footer.

TYLER GOSS

NOT READY FOR IT TO BE OVER

As the first four weeks are over, I find myself thinking about the end of camp. The summer has gone so quickly, and it doesn't feel like we're past the halfway mark yet. With parents' weekend done, the next to come is squads and then Crew Week. And then the final week. I'm not ready!

GEORGE MONTGOMERY

GOALS

This week I did my practical in camping. I am really close now to my ribbon. I have my solo left and then I will have my ribbon. I also have to complete my swimmers and have my axe test left and then I'll graduate. I can't wait to work hard and accomplish all of these goals so that I can graduate.

RAFI UNGER

TRAP SHOOTING CLUB

Today in the Clubs I shot a shotgun! We shot clays out of the air. My first shot missed, my second shot missed, my third shot missed, my fourth shot was close but missed, but then on my final shot I hit it! Today was fun. I hope I get to shoot a shotgun again!

DJ MARSH

FUN SUNDAY

Today for Clubs I went to the soccer club. I scored one goal, but we did lose. It was a lot of fun. Then we went out to the swimmers' raft and swam and jumped off the diving board.

BEN WILCOX

FAVORITE HIKE

This Thursday the Den went on a day hike to Mt. Lafayette with Mr. Conklin, Mr. Beever, Mr. McGreevy, and Mr. Robbins. The hike was gorgeous and led to the Greenleaf Hut. It was my first time seeing a hut. The staff was all very nice, and the snacks were delicious. We then hiked to the summit of Lafayette with the view covered by the clouds. Sadly, we had to turn back because of a thunderstorm. This hike is one of my favorites and I plan on doing it again.

SEBASTIAN PHANEUF

SWIMMING LESSONS

This week I got my practical in camping, and something else that happened was that I learned that I am a terrible swimmer. When I try to do the backstroke, I literally swim in a circle. Luckily Mr. Garcia worked with me and now I can do the backstroke in a straight line. I'm not even going to mention my attempt at the butterfly. I really had fun singing at the talent show and I can't wait for squads to be announced.

ARI UNGER

THE MAHOOSUCS

I'm glad that the first half of Mowglis is over because now in the next three weeks there will be a lot of fun. Squads, Crew Week, race day, the candlelight ceremony, both Watersports Day and Woodsman's Day, and then Mrs. Holts Day. Today I did the Rubik's cube club and I'm working on solving the cube. I'm not quite there yet but I'm learning from others. This week Panther did the Mahoosuc trail, we did the notch at a slow pace and then sped up to the second campsite. At the notch, we saw different cracks between rocks and some had snow and ice in them. The food was decent, and we were all there moving and working properly after a long but nice trip. I woke up at 5 AM with Iker, Isaac, and Mr. Hernandez to go up and see the sunrise. On the next pack trip if you have the chance to see the sunrise take that chance and that sunrise picture will be in your head forever and it's really beautiful.

ANTON FALCONER

HARD DAYS

Five weeks of camp have already passed by. These days have been so hard, with earning requirements and ribbons. Watersports day was so fun, especially the greasy watermelon. It was so crazy and aggressive, some people ended up being carried by others. My team got second place. This Sunday was the last crew tryouts and I hope I make First Form, it's gonna be a BVD!

IKER MEDINA-MORA

A GREAT MORNING

Today has been a great morning. We started the morning playing a football game where we were able to see dribbles, fouls, and some spectacular goals. At the end of the game, we were able to go to the swimmer's raft and the campers all jumped off doing different kinds of jumps off the diving board. The most exciting thing was at the end when we were on the way back to Akela. I ate a mosquito for the first time, at first it was a little scary but then we all laughed. And lastly, a little reflection especially dedicated to the boys who lost the match this morning. Life is like a challenge. Love it, feel, love, laugh, play, lose, stumble but always get up and move on.

MR. SITJAR

WASHINGTON SQUAD

This Monday, ten Dentes, Mr. Bravo, and Mr. Garcia went on the Washington Squad. I've always looked up to squads and this year we got the opportunity to stay at the Huts. We first summited Webster and had great views of the cliffs. We arrived at Mizpah Hut and saw a group of kids we saw this past week on Lafayette. We had an amazing dinner and went to bed. The next day we summited Mt. Pierce, Mt. Eisenhower, and Mt. Monroe, with Monroe having the best views. After arriving at Lakes of the Clouds Hut and having lots of hot cocoa we went to explore the lake. Somehow Nate's shirt ended up in the water and I decided to jump in and cool off. After another amazing dinner, we went to bed. The next morning, we started to summit Washington and got to the summit pretty fast. We all wanted to find the good hoodies and pizza but the pizza stand was closed and we couldn't find the hoodies. The next few hours of hiking were pretty hard, especially while summiting Mt. Adams. We finally made it to Madison Hut and played board games and had lots of hot cocoa. Later that day we summited Mt. Madison for the sunset. We took lots of pictures and went back down to the hut and admired the stars. Washington Squad was by far the best trip that I've ever done and will always remember it fondly.

SEBASTIAN PHANEUF

FIVE WEEKS

It's already Crew Week and the first five weeks have flown by. I'm excited for Crew Week and all it brings. I'm really hoping I make a form this year. Even though Crew Week is very exciting it also means the end of camp is near. I hope that before the end of summer I can make my Inner Circle.

JOHNNY DEMOPOULOS

THE FRIGHTENED CHIPMUNK

A funny thing happened the other day. I sat down on the toilet in HQ and when I stood up there was a very scared chipmunk in the toilet bowl. Mr. Hammond rescued it with a broom and took it outside to recover and return to the wild. Quite a day for one little chipmunk and for me!

DIRECTOR NICK

MT. CARDIGAN BASECAMP TRIP

This week we went on a base camp trip to Mt. Cardigan. The food was not the greatest, but it was okay. The view from the top was beautiful! There was a small puddle up there that had hundreds of tadpoles in it.

ANSON MAGOON

HOPING FOR A BVD

It's Crew Week already and it seems like camp has just started. It's hard to believe that we're almost done. I know I'm going to be Blue because all my brothers are Blue. I hope to be on 3rd Form but I missed one tryout and did get to do another. Hopefully Blue wins.

JOHNNIE SOUKUP

SAILING FUN

I finally earned my Golden Anchor, it took me two summers, and even though I already have my ribbon now I want to go sailing more. While working on the ribbon I had a really fun time sailing in high wind. I can't wait to go sailing next year!

PEYTON ELIE

OPEN SWIMMERS RAFT

Today it was open swimmers raft! When I got to the dock, I did a lot of jumps off the diving board. It was a lot of fun seeing Zorian do a gazunga and seeing Sebby doing some jumps. Mr. Hall came around on a paddleboard. I wanted to have a ride, but he paddled away. Today was fun.

DJ MARSH

SHOTGUNS

Today I went to the upper ballfield and did some clay pigeon shooting. I hit two clays and missed two. Overall, it was very fun!

CHRISTOPHER CONDON

SHOTGUN CLUB

Today I did the shotgun club. When it was my turn, I went up, loaded the gun, and choked it back. I got the gun up on my shoulder and I screamed PULL and the clay released. I aimed, squeezed the trigger, and to my surprise, it exploded everywhere. I can't wait to do it again!

GEORGE SAROSI

SWIMMERS' RAFT

Today I went to the swimmers' raft and I had a great time, Zorian taught me to corkscrew and make a huge splash, I also did a great gazunga! I can't wait to get swimmers!

CARTER YEATMAN

THE FENCING DUEL

It was Friday the 29th and I walked into lower Gray Brothers to fence. I challenged my brother Mr. McGreevy to a duel, and he accepted. We began to fence, and he scored the first two touches. I got a lucky hit and scored. He scored and then scored again so the score was 4 to 2. I made the greatest comeback scoring twice. This was it, the score was 4 to 4 and the air was thin. We began to fence, and I hit him. I had won the duel and became the better McGreevy.

FIRST DAY OF CREW WEEK

Today is the first day of Crew Week. I really hope I make a form (3 seat). Today we woke up to this dog beatboxing ... not really what it was, but it sounded like it. Bye.

ADRIAN MORGAN

BUSY WEEK

A lot has happened this week. Crew tryouts went into full blast, and the final tryout was earlier today. If this howl is read, by that time I will know which form I made. Fingers crossed! Gopher Squad was awesome, with great hikes, views, food, and people. As we enter Crew Week, I'm realizing that this summer is nearly over. After that, I will only have Den left. Wow, time flies! It seems like yesterday I left my family's car and was going into Akela.

ISAAC SPRUNG

THE START OF A GREAT WEEK

Today is Sunday, the start of Crew Week. I can't wait! My parents are coming to Mowglis. The food is going to be delicious, and I can't wait to make a form. I checked the schedule and Monday is staff hunt, Tuesday we have roster making, Wednesday we have capture the flag, trip day is on Thursday, and the pep rally is on Friday. Saturday is Crew Day and for breakfast we have steak and eggs. I don't really know what kind of steak it will be because last time we had T-bone steak. Today for campfire we are going to learn the crews and tomorrow (today is Monday) we are going to learn the chants. Wednesday, we have the former crew coach coming over. Thursday, we have smores, and Friday the bonfire and pep rally. I can't wait for this week!

JASON "JOSH" YUN

AIM HIGH, EXPECT LOW

If you know me, you know that I love Crew. It's something I would rather do than eat breakfast. It feels like just yesterday that I got to camp and started going to the industry every day. But today is boat signing day. I am less nervous than last year because I am very confident about making a form this year. I have a very good friend who told me some wise words... "Aim High, Expect Low." Last year I felt like I didn't use my full skill. Okay boys, it's time for that sweet Crew Day! RVD!

JAKE MANNO

BREAKING THE LAW

I broke the law this week, making me and Cooper Bengtson criminals. During a VIP canoeing sign-up, we got the one-man tube donut things, kayak paddles, and life jackets and set out on an adventure. We were cruisin' until Mr. Gulitti pulled us over and sent us back saying that we are technically breaking the law! So, yes, we are felons, but we aren't dangerous.

WILL GREVEN

CREW WEEK DOWN

It seems incredible we've already been through five weeks of camp, and now we venture into the best week of the summer, Crew Week! After five weeks of hard work, reaching individual goals, like tough requirements or attaining ribbons, the whole camp unifies to celebrate the event of the season. No matter if you're Red or Blue we all come together for the biggest sports event of the summer, and through sportsmanship and a little healthy rivalry, we guide each other to become better Mowglis people. We have an exciting and exhausting week ahead of us but with the principles of sportsmanship and camaraderie held up like in every Crew Week I have lived, we will all reach the dusk of this week knowing we've given the best of ourselves and become better along the way.

P.S. It's gonna be an RVD!

MR. DE VELASCO

THE BEST WEEK OF CAMP

Today is the start of the best week of camp ... CREW WEEK! The boats, the forms, and finally the bonfire. If you haven't been to crew week or the bonfire, you're in for a really great time! And if you have been here before, it is also really fun!

HEYWARD WILCOX

WASHINGTON SQUAD

It's been a week since they announced squads. I was leading the Washington Squad and I felt so honored and happy, especially doing it with my friend, Mr. García, and this amazing group of campers. All the hikes, food, huts, and sunsets were great. It's been a real gift. Thank you, Camp Mowglis!

MR. BRAVO

A WELCOMING TO THE UNKNOWN

We are on the cusp of Crew Week, and I am really excited to see what happens during the week of fun and tension. I know that my bandanas will come out, my voice lost yet again, and my dorm separated for the second time this summer, but other than that anything is possible. I look forward to not knowing what will happen next and I welcome any and all situations to come.

Let the Mowglis Crew Week begin!

RAAGHAV N MITTAL

WEEK SIX

This week has been a regular Mowglis week, and it has been just fine. We had our Industries and sign-ups and I enjoyed them a lot. Watersports Day was also really fun; we got to do loads of activities which were really cool. The best was greasy watermelon! Next week is Crew Week and I cannot wait for it. Today was the last tryout and boats get announced really soon! I hope that everyone gets where they want to be and enjoys it as much as me!

JAMIE PEREZ

MY FIRST WEEK

It has been one week so far, and it was immediately interesting. My favorite part of the week was tubing. It was my first time ever tubing so I was a tad bit nervous. We got on the Starcraft (it was me and around eight other Akelites) and went to the middle of the massive lake. There were three turns before me with two people each. Everyone had fallen off and it was finally my turn. When I got on, I was extremely excited. We caught a lot of air and me and my partner held on for a long time. After two minutes, we both fell off but came up laughing.

TJ LIM

CREW WEEK

This is my first year at Mowglis, so I haven't experienced Crew Week yet. I am very excited for Crew Week because my dad and friends have been hyping up the food, environment, and experience for a long time. I'm looking forward to Crew Week and hope it's as fun as everyone says it is.

GYAN CERWINSKI

WATERSPORTS DAY PIT MANEUVER

Watersports Day is a day of swimming, diving, canoeing, and everything else waterfront related. Will and I participated in the canoe race which would take us from the beach to Waingunga buoy and back. The first leg of the race to the buoy was hard fought with all four teams seconds apart from each other. On the way back two teams pulled ahead from the pack, my boat and another boat containing Tyler and Isaac. With only a quarter of the race left, our boats rammed together as each team vied to pull ahead and claim first. After a full minute, Tyler's boat slowly started to pull ahead. It was at this moment when they were half a boat length ahead that our bow started turning into their stern and I put every ounce of strength into the oar. This pushed Tyler's boat backward slowing them significantly and allowing Will and I to steam into first.

DENTON MONTGOMERY

THE BRASS CHOIR PRIVILEGE (NOTE: WE = BRASS CHOIR)

It is dinner on a Saturday. After the meal, I go to the chapel to pack for our trip to the Church of Laconia. We put our instruments in the "Mercedes" (golf cart deluxe) and hitch a ride up, entering colors in style. The following morning, we all woke up at 6:50 to eat breakfast. We head out and get Dunkin' at a drive-through and continue to Laconia. We play for the church and then eat some snacks and help organize toothbrushes. We get Ben and Jerry's on our way back, and when we get back, the Mercedes is waiting for us. We drive down, drop off our instruments, and go on one last joyride to drop off everyone. And that, my reader, is the brass choir privilege.

KAYSHAV N. MITTAL

OUR TRIP DAY

This Thursday's day trip was the best one yet. We had to hike up Jackson-Webster Mountain. Halfway, there was a hangout rock and we got to see the lake, the train tracks, the road, and the station for Crawford. Our destination was the summit, but it thundered so we went back down to the hangout spot called Bugle Cliff from the waterfalls where we ate lunch. As the week goes on, the energy rises. Mowglis bring on Crew Week!

ANTON FALCONER

GOPHER SQUAD

Gopher Squad was fun. On the first day, we went up Eisenhower Ridge and walked to Monroe and then to Lakes in the Clouds. The hut was nice. On the next day, we hiked up Washington in 40-50 mph winds. I almost got blown off the mountain. After that, we hiked to Mt. Clay and Mt. Jefferson. The trip was fun.

HIRO NISHINO

THE GIDDY BATTLE

This week I signed up for fencing and was not prepared for what happened. I challenged Mr. McGreevy, he was tryharding on an Akelite. Then Mr. McGreevy's own brother challenged him. The battle of the McGreevys turned into a war and a close 5-4 resulted. Ollie had won, but then Mr. Grady challenged Mr. McGreevy. Maybe he wanted a win, maybe he wanted to have fun. Whatever the case he accepted. But the fast unexpected battle slowed and Mr. Grady won! Mr. Ham said he thought kids called Mr. Grady... Mr. Griddy and three Giddys were born - Mr. Grady, Mr. McGriddy, and Ollie McGriddy. I then beat them all in 1v1s.

LYON COURTNEY

ALMOST THE END

It's already the last week. I'm going on the Red Ribbon trip and I'm getting my Inner Circle. I'm excited and sad about the last week. These six weeks have flown by and there are only six days left. The lasts and last chances for things are coming up and hopefully everyone makes the best of it.

JOHNNY DEMOPOULOS

FAVORITE WEEK AT CAMP EVER

This Crew Week has been my favorite week at camp ever. Besides winning the race, being able to witness and participate in Crew Week on Racing Crew has been an amazing experience. From leading the cheers to hyping up the younger forms and watching them win and lose. Being able to be at the front of all of that was truly an honor and something that I've been looking forward to for years. This week will be something that I will keep with me forever.

TYLER GOSS

AMAZING RACE

Sadly...blue third form (my form) lost yesterday. But, with an amazing sprint at the finish of the race...blue racing crew won it out as a BVD!

GEORGE SAROSI

THE YEAR 2022

This has been quite a year. I learned many things, I've been homesick and sad, but I've been glad that I could enjoy a special place like Mowglis. I made many friends, I've made a few enemies, I've lost many things, and I've found many things, but overall, I've become a member of the 2022 pack.

CHRIS LOCKHART

THE CLAY CLUB

Today at Clubs I did Clay Club. I covered myself in clay and then let it dry on, so basically it is really good for your skin because what it does is it shrinks when it dries so it takes all the gunk and stuff out of your skin. Then you jump in the water to rinse it off and it feels so nice and refreshing.

ANSON MAGOON

AN EXPERIENCE TO REMEMBER

The Washington Squad Trip was an experience to remember and never forget. We hiked for four days, staying at Mizpah, Lakes of the Cloud, and lastly Madison. The views from the huts and peaks were breathtaking. It was the little things, like drinking tea with friends, swimming in the lakes, and even meeting the amazing Hut Croos. Our Washington Squad hiked the Presidentials like nobody's business. This trip just shows how Mowglis allows us to experience things we might never get to in a lifetime. From learning how to make friends to hiking Mount Washington, Mowglis is an incredible place.

NATE GREVEN

A FUN YEAR

This Den year has been so much fun! Even though it was a BVD, being on racing crew was great. I look forward to my last week as a camper. I know that I'll never be in Den again so I want to make this last week great.

THOMAS PATINO

A GREAT SUMMER

I am leaving today. I'm going to miss this place. The last weeks were very active. I got my RWB and my fencing ribbon. Plus, I got first place in the fencing tournament and Inner Circle. I love this place.

PETER NATALE

BVD

I'm really happy it was a BVD! Crew Week is always so much fun!

NED HANRAHAN

GRADUATION

I'm extremely close to graduating, and I have my Inner Circle. I'm really happy that I came to Mowglis for my Panther and Den years. It was definitely worth it. This is my last Howl, and I hope that I can say at the end that I've graduated.

RAFI UNGER

A SUMMER TO REMEMBER

This will be a summer that I will never forget. Not sure if this is the last Howl or not, so I'm gonna make it good. Today I went tubing, and that was definitely a highlight of the past weeks. Also, I graduated and got Inner Circle. Red, silver, black, and green. Washington Squad was also crazy fun.

NATHANIEL BERGEN

THE END OF CREW WEEK

Every red and blue crew human cheering on their boats, and with racing crew pulling the oars in and out of the water with fierce strength and working together as a team to row perfectly through the water was amazing. With all the cheers in addition to the parades showed everyone how much appreciation they have for their true colors. Well done to all rowers. And that is the finish of crew day 2022!

ANTON FALCONER

THE BEST YEAR

Camp is almost over, and this year has been great. From going on Washington Squad to being part of Racing Crew, I feel like this was one of my best years at Mowglis. This last week will fly by, Graduates Dinner will be here in a blink of an eye, so make the most of it.

SEBASTIAN PHANEUF

LAST WEEK OF MOWGLIS

It was an amazing Crew Week, but camp is now drawing to a close. This has been an amazing summer. I'm excited for the Cardigan Assault and everything coming in the last week of camp, but I know I'm going to miss Mowglis after it's over.

KELLAN LOCKHART

CREW DAY

Yesterday was crew day and it was cool seeing the races with blue racing crew taking the win. I'm so happy that blue won at the end when they just sprinted past red racing crew. The Yankee Smokehouse food was good, and so was the talent show. This was a pretty cool experience.

DJ MARSH

MEETING GOALS

This year has been great. I made all of my goals come true, like Graduating, Inner Circle, Washington Squad, and Racing Crew. But, I've also had a lot of fun. I love Mowglis and can't wait to come back as a staff and continue my life here. Good hunting.

COOPER BENGTON

CREW DAY

Yesterday was crew day, one of the best days at camp. People started to yell to each other at the parade, crew vs. crew, form vs. form, and racing vs. racing, the race had started. Red crew had the first two wins of the day, but blue crew got their first victory of the day with the cub race. And then me, in 1st form we had smoked red 1st form by 10 boats, and we were tied with two victories for each crew until racing crew. Blue crew did the best sprint I've ever seen and brought another BVD in the bag! I'm also going to miss my friends from camp.

IKER MEDINA MORA

CREW WEEK

Last week was Crew Week. I will remember the fun, stress, and joy of the week. Winning my race, losing the day. But after, we reunite as one.

CONNOR THOEL

A SPECIAL PLACE

It's really crazy that this is my last week of camp as a camper ever. I've been here for six years and next Sunday I'm going home. I've done all I want to do in my years as a camper. I made Washington Squad, won racing crew, got Inner Circle, and got my Orange ribbon. This place has taught me so much and I've made friendships with so many different people. This place will always hold a special place in my heart and so do the people around me. Mowglis and Den 2022, I salute you.

WILL GREVEN

CREW DAY

Yesterday was crew day, first form (my form) lost, but still, it was probably the best day of camp!

CARTER YEATMAN

LAST WEEK

It's the last week, and it felt like it's going by so fast, but when I look back it feels like it went by so slowly. This is why I love Mowglis. It feels like it goes by so fast, but it doesn't, because you have a big chunk of time to learn so much, and this is why I can't wait for next year.

JACK LEARY

CLAY

Today during Clubs I went to the swimmers' section to find clay! Everyone covered themselves in clay and let it dry. Today's club was a very good last Clubs.

CASH LINDSLEY

CREW DAY

I'm sad red lost, but it was still fun and it was a good race. I also made a cool poster.

ZORIAN ARCE

NEARING THE END

Today I did the fencing tournament, and it was also Crew Week. I won my race, but it was a BVD. I can't believe that there is only one week left.

DANIEL DEVINE

SOCCER CLUB

Today was Clubs and I chose soccer. We played a great match and then we went in Beginners' to cool off.

KINGSLEY NWAISE

A BITTERSWEET COMBINATION

I am sad and happy that camp is coming to an end. When I get home I will probably do the same things I do at camp at home, just in a different place with different people. It's a bittersweet combination.

DRU ROBBINS

THE MOST FUN WEEK

This week was the funnest because it was Crew Week. I got first form on blue crew and yesterday we won by 20 seconds.

ALONSO BENAVIDES

SECOND FORM RACE

At the start of the race, I called a power 10 stroke. After the power 10 I called another, and another. Now we are at Waingunga Point and I call a sprint. Now we are a boat ahead, and as we come to the swimmers' dock they catch up to us, but we still won by half a boat.

RYLAND CASE, FUTURE RED RACING CREW COX

CREW WEEK RECAP

This was a very interesting week. First, it was a BVD, which is not my preference, but it was a very fair race and a good day. Second, third form almost crashes into a boat. I don't know much about how that happened, but red was happy, and blue was confused, and we knew it was over. Second form Ryland Case, Jake Manno, Johnny D. The greatest race I've seen in a while. I was really happy to see my parents. Last but not least, Unity, friendship, big man, and rowing. I hope everyone has had a good summer.

JAKE MANNO

BONFIRE

The bonfire was amazing! The embers spewed out like a volcano of light. They shined like stars in the night sky. The atmosphere was alive with crew spirit. I love Crew Week and I'm sad to leave camp next week.

SEBASTIAN LAFONTANT

CLAY

For Clubs this Sunday, we had amazing options, but I picked the clay club. Basically, we went to the waterfront, got clay from the bottom of the lake, and smeared it on us. Once we let it dry we jumped in the water. Now all of us are shiny.

DHRUV MOHAN

THE SIXTH WEEK

Today marks the sixth week of camp. I am excited to go back home, but I am going to miss my friends at camp. Crew Week was also very fun.

CKYSON WEBSTER

A DAY TO REMEMBER

Crew Week was exciting. I made Red Racing Crew which was very cool. We had a solid boat, but sadly lost on race day. I had a great time overall, and I will remember every bit of it. I hope next year is an RVD!

OLLIE MCGREEVY

CREW DAY

Yesterday was crew day. I was third form. We lost, but Crew Week is over, so it doesn't matter. I saw my parents, which was nice, and the food was awesome! I think we all enjoyed Crew Week.

ARJUN MOHAN

FINAL WEEK

It is now the final week at camp and I'm sad it will be soon coming to an end. It has been amazing being on the tennis court helping everyone with their requirements, and the tennis competition is getting to its closing stages. The games keep getting better and better the higher the stakes. Leading Toomai has also been great, the gents have achieved so much. The resilience on the trail has been impressive and they have made their mark in the pack. Toomai will be a formidable 2026 Den if they continue striving forward. Mowglis 2022 has been in good form.

MR. K. HALL

Red Ribbon Trip - Back row: Jaime Perez, Diego Saenz, Johnny Demopoulos, Mr. Conklin Front: Preston Morgan, Mr. Greenwell, Diego Larrea, Iker Medina Mora, Adrian Morgan, Alex Hayden, Mr. Akre, Mr. Sitjar

CREW WEEK

Crew day was yesterday, and I made third form but we lost because a motorboat may or may not have cut us off or we may or may not have steered into the spectator area, so we had to immediately stop and we lost. Blue won racing crew in the end, so Crew Week was great.

JOHNNIE SOUKUP

REFLECTIONS ON MY TIME HERE

This is my last Howl as a camper, so I'm not going to talk about how the week went but reflect on my general time. I came in Panther and I expected a lot. And I got a lot. Mowglis has given me a lot. In Panther, I was the new kid and I had to integrate myself into a dorm full of people I had never met. I want to say that I did that successfully, or sort of successfully but time is the test for that one. In Den, I had two challenges: Get Inner Circle and graduate. I'm one requirement away from Inner Circle and three requirements away from graduation, so I'm well on my way. I also set other goals, like Washington Squad, that I didn't get, so I've learned how to take rejection and not get what I want and then bounce back. Mowglis has taught me a lot, and for that, I will always be thankful.

ARI UNGER

EIGHT YEARS

I started my journey in Cubs as a small seven-year-old and spent 2014 learning as a four-weeker. In my second Cub year, I came for four weeks again and made friends from the last summer. During my third and last Cub year, I spent as a seven-weeker where I learned to love Archery. It was in Toomai of 2017 that I could work on my golden arrow as well as frequently visit the rifle range and canoeing range. In Baloo I got my first ribbon; the golden arrow, an achievement I was proud of. In Akela year, my sixth year at camp, I learned to bond with the rest of the dorm as well as earn the gold ribbon. In Panther, after losing a year to Covid, I got my green. Now it is my eighth year and last year as a camper. I've got Inner Circle with the golden chord, I'm inches away from graduation, and I've made friends I'll never forget. As the last week of being a camper starts, I can't help but think of all the summers gone by. These 16 dormmates that I've bonded with I hope stay friends like brothers forever. Den 2022, I salute you!

DENTON MONTGOMERY

Graduates' Dinner

THE END OF MY TIME AS A CAMPER

Crew Week just ended, and the last week of camp has just started. My time as a camper is coming to a close, along with all of my opportunities to graduate, get ribbons, and get Inner Circle. It is a sad fact of life that as time passes your opportunities disappear, but while old opportunities disappear, they are always replaced with new ones. Just as the end of your favorite series of books can leave you heartbroken or sad, it always leaves you time to find and start a new one, starting a new chapter in your life. My time as a camper is ending with its opportunities while also opening up new opportunities with Yearlings, JS, and maybe, just maybe a senior staff. Seven more days of Mowglis, enjoy it while it lasts.

THOMAS CHAMBERLAIN

THE LAST HOWL

It is crazy that this is my last Howl as a camper. My time at Mowglis has been so incredible and I believe it has truly shaped who I am. This place is truly so incredible, and I look forward greatly to coming back.

HORATIO WILCOX

2022 CUB HISTORY

The sunshine was beating down on the field by Ford Hall when I arrived. I came straight from the last day of school up to Mowglis and wondered if this summer would be as wet as the last, or if sunshine would prevail. I was excited as I was told more times than I could count that Summer 2021 wasn't a "regular Mowglis summer" but this year was going to be just that. "Just wait 'til next year, that will be a real "regular Mowglis summer," and "I can't wait for you to experience the regular Mowglis summer." It came to be a phrase that I would greet with a roll of the eye or a dry chuckle. To someone who was still fairly new to Mowglis, I had no baseline for what a "regular Mowglis summer" was supposed to look like, and truthfully, I doubted its existence.

However, what I have come to realize in my limited experience is that nothing about Mowglis is "regular." In fact, that's why I believe that Mowglis has been in existence for as long as it has. Mowglis is special, different, IRREGULAR.

The Cub Program strays even farther from the norm of the "regular." Sure, we make the programming as similar to the Pack as we can to prepare the youngest campers for their future in the illustrious Pack, but we do our own thing. Irregular was how we spent our days.

The addition of demonstration Industry periods for the Cubs was also irregular. This meant that the Cubs were able to observe and carefully participate in Industries that are often reserved for Akela and up. This included Industries like Woodworking, Axemanship, and our newest Industry, Blacksmithing. The Cubs consumed this irregularity with fervor and enthusiasm. They were able to be a part of something that even some members of the pack had to wait for. Irregular was fun.

Campfires are an integral part of camp and offer more personal connections with a broader audience. While this is fantastic, the Cubs may not understand Mr. Nguyen's "Metaphysics" or Mr. Drennan's "Self- Constructing Objects and Concepts" campfires, as much as they would like to. When campfires would go over Cubs' heads, our Cub campfires whisked our littlest members up to our private campfire circle with our littlest camp chairs and offered not only weekly S'mores on Thursdays, but hot chocolate with marshmallows as well. Irregular Cub Campfires had extra perks.

So, while most people considered 2022 a "regular Mowglis summer," I continued to admire the irregular camp that is Mowglis. Irregular allows children to thrive, to learn in ways not presented to them in brick-and-mortar school buildings. Irregularity forces children out of their comfort zones and into the zone where character is built.

One day I will be able to tell new counselors about the "regular Mowglis summers" that are coming. But until then, I will continue to embrace my own Irregular Mowglis Summer memories.

CUBS 2022: SESSION 1

Back row: Mr. Salo, Miss Ellie, Mama Boone, Azalea, Mr. Slater, Mr. A. Cosgrove, Mr. Ayuso, Mr. Corkin-Howell (CH), Mr. Grady; 3rd row: Counselor Cat, Andrew Rolfe, Julian Clark, Vitien Alem-Mbelem, Miguel Medina, Andrew Jacobs, Mac Saxton, Xander Omondi, Paul Sarosi; 2nd row: Blake Soltysik, Bowen Wilson, Ciaran Clark, Steven Lucarelli, Ryland Peterkoski, Derek Ma; Front row: Ryder Jin, Joe Sprung

CAMP FEELINGS

Happy, Glad Sad, Mad
Sorry, Enthusiastic
Quiet, Jealousy!
That's all the feelings at camp!

CIARAN CLARK

1ST WEEK OF CAMP

We did Clubs. I chose music and board games. I played with a Denite! My duty is table boy! I am having lots of fun.

RYDER JIN

KAYAKING

It was so cool. I went to the middle of the lake. I was the first person stuck in the waves.

ANDREW ROLFE

XANDER'S MOWGLIS WEEK

I had fun tubing. We learned riflery safety precautions. I'm excited to go tubing again.

XANDER OMONDI

ARCHERY

I got a bullseye on my first try. My highest score was 43. I got 21 on my second try. I am getting better at archery.

JULIAN CLARK

SEVEN MORE MINUTES

One day when we were hiking with Mr. P. Jenkins and every time we asked him how much more time he said, "Seven more minutes, boys!"

PAUL SAROSI

BLAKE'S FUN WEEK

Mr. Ham lives in Cub Land. He is SO funny!
Mr. Ham and Ms. Cat are the best counselors.

BLAKE SOLTYSIK

FUN STUFF

Hi! I learned archery and went tubing! I also had fun playing Gaga pit!

DEREK MA

STEVEN'S HOWL

I got a bullseye at camp and I did Clubs.

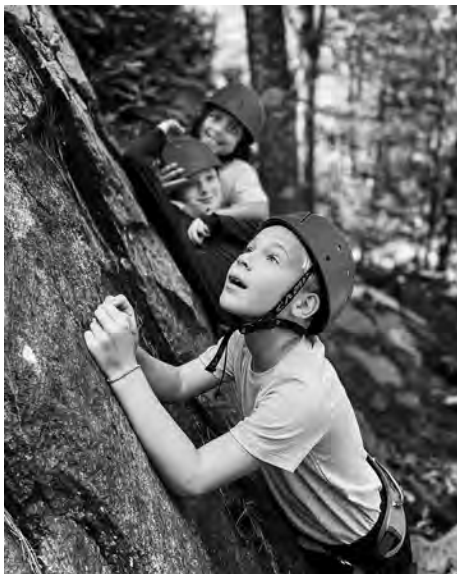

STEVEN LUCARELLI

ARCHERY

At archery, I got 2 bullseyes and 2 blue and 1 red and in total I got 45 points. Five away to getting the golden arrow.

BOWEN WILSON

CLUBS

Today we did Clubs. There were so many to choose from. I chose music so I could tell the counselors about it. Later we played in front of the ping pongers club. It was really fun.

ANDREW JACOBS

YAY

Mowglis is fine. I tubed and at one point fell over a water cliff. Here's a poem:

Moments
Moments of Silence
Going over the river
Up on a tube
There I shiver
I hope I shoot guns
And eat hotdog buns
All will be fine

DEREK MA

WEEK ONE

I am having a lot of fun! I love arts and crafts. Mowglis is a lot of fun.

MIGUEL MEDINA

CRAFTS

The Crafts instructor Mr. Slater let me paint an axe handle. It was so fun! I made one for me and my dad.

BLAKE SOLTYSIK

MOUNTAIN BIKING

Today I went mountain biking with Mr. CH. I went downstairs on and off my bike.

ANDREW ROLFE

KAYAKING

I got to go kayaking. Mr. Gulitti flung me into the water three times!!! I was able to get back on twice, but not the third.

BOWEN WILSON

RYDER'S LIST

Favorite Counselor - Mr. CH
 Favorite Industry - Riflery
 Favorite Sign-Up - Woodworking
 Favorite Food - Ice cream
 Favorite Mountain - Mt. Cardigan
 Favorite Bunk - Top

RYDER JIN

SCOOPS

We went to Scoops. I got extreme chocolate and moose tracks for ice cream. It was awesome!

JULIAN CLARK

ON THE DIVING BOARD

Today at Clubs I went to the waterfront. I went to the raft and jumped off. Steven (he is in my Cub dorm) did the highest jump I've ever seen.

VITIEN ALEM-MBELEM

CARDIGAN

On Wednesday we hiked up Cardigan. I got no sleep.

PAUL SAROSI

THINGS THAT MOWGLIS REMINDS ME OF

Sweet pine trees with sticky sap, bees buzzing all around my ears, strong oaks leaning from side to side, dewy grass blowing from side to side, and birds chirping. And one thing is for sure, Mr. Hart screaming in his megaphone that colors has to look snappy.

JOE SPRUNG

THROWN INTO THE WATER

Yesterday Mr. CH and Mr. Slater threw me into the water. Woohoo!

STEVEN LUCARELLI

WRITING A HOWL

Monday, The start of the week
 Tuesday, Going to the campsite
 Wednesday, Hiking up Cardigan
 Thursday, Ready for Scoops
 Friday, the end of the week
 Saturday, Star Wars, hooray!
 Sunday, today

ANDREW JACOBS

WEEK FOUR SUNDAY

I love it here! It is so fun here I am having a lot of fun. I love Clubs. I love art and crafts.

MIGUEL MEDINA

SHOTGUN SHOOTING

I shot a shotgun. I hit the clay once. I got to keep the cartridge.

JULIAN CLARK

RYLAND'S HOWL

I caught a lake trout. It tasted good today.

RYLAND PETERKOSKI

MOUNT CARDIGAN BASE CAMP TRIP

So on the first day of our base camp trip, we had this really good rice, chicken, and broccoli. The next day was hike day. We had popcorn and chocolate bars. We also had jelly bagels on the top of Mount Cardigan. I almost caught a salamander during soak. We had free time and the chili mack was good then we had s'mores for dessert and during s'mores I saw a baby fox. Then on Thursday we had chocolate oatmeal and left.

XANDER OMONDI

IN A CAVE

On trip day we went to Mount Crosby. There was a big storm that came in. We put on our raincoats and hid in a cave. We ate our lunch in the cave and we played games and told stories while we were in the cave for a few hours. We came down when the storm was gone. Camp is fun and cool!

EMOTION

Emotion is to feel.

Emotion is engraved in our bodies. Our mind.
Our heart. Our soul.

Emotions are all around in the sky, the ground,
the earth, and the animals.

Emotion is to be loving, caring, sad, and happy.
It's what makes us alive and living.

CIARAN CLARK

THE TROUBLE WITH A BUBBLE

Today at Clubs Mr. Hart told Cubs that we had to do shooting or bubbles. I chose bubbles. Mr. Drennan told two Cubs to find sticks, then he got a rope with the sticks to make a BIG wand, and then he blew in a sock to make lots o' bubbles. It was so fun!

ANDREW JACOBS

WEEK 3 SUNDAY

I love Camp Mowglis. It is so fun. I am happy that we got Scoops. I love arts and crafts.

MIGUEL MEDINA

SHOTGUNS

I just went clay shooting. It was so fun! I hit the target! I also got a shotgun shell.

MAXIMUS SAXTON

S'MORES

Campfires are yummy. Marshmallow + chocolate + graham crackers = s'mores. I can't believe I got 5 in riflery.

DEREK MA

SHOTGUNS

I went shotgunning on Sunday. I did not hit the target. It is so fun.

ANDREW ROLFE

CLAY PIDGEON SHOOTING

Today my club was clay pigeon shooting. I did not hit a single clay. But all my shots were close.

PAUL SAROSI

TUBING

I went tubing for my first time. It was scary but fun. I fell off the first try but luckily I had a life jacket. I can't wait to do it again.

VITIEN ALEM-MBELEM

PADDLEBOARDING

Paddleboarding is really fun because you get to paddle around anywhere at any speed and you can jump out of the paddleboard.

MAX RUDOLPH

CLUBS

I did shotgun club. I did kayaking club. I hope you're having a good time today.

RYLAND PETERKOSKI

WAINGUNGA ROCK

Waingunga rock is a bright yellow rock. It's located near Baloo Cove, and when you swim out to it you can stand on it. It's really cool.

HUNTER HULME

FIRST TIME AT MOWGLIS AS A CUB

Being a Cub for the first time at Mowglis is great. All that they tell you is what Mowglis is all about.

CHARLIE BALDWIN

TOMORROW

Tomorrow is Crew Week! And it is going to be a BVD. It will be a BVD.

PAUL V. SAROSI

SHOTGUN

I got to shoot a shotgun! It had a lot of recoil! I hit the moving clay disc. I got to keep the shell. I got to break a clay disc. It is hard to hit the clay. The shotgun shoots multi amounts of shells/balls instead of a single bullet. I can see why it takes a lot of practice to shoot the gun. There is a type of disc that has wildflower seeds inside of it so when it explodes it scatters the seeds. The discs are compostable. We shot them on the upper ballfield. IT WAS AWESOME!

CIARAN CLARK

CREW WEEK

Crew Week is the best week in the whole Camp Mowglis. The camp is split into two teams. At the end of the day the camp comes back into one team.

SERGE GEIER

CREW WEEK

I can't wait to see crew boats racing. Crew is one to eight people on a long boat. Crew in my opinion is one of the best sports.

JACK VIVES

FUN AT CAMP MOWGLIS

At Camp Mowglis there are so many things to do. From shooting rifles to rowing in a boat. Today I got to row in a canoe. I can't wait for Crew Week.

HENRY BOULD

HOW I ALMOST WON GAGA BALL

One day at free time, I almost won gaga ball. I got out a lot, but I got in by getting people out. It was a new round and I got in the final three, but I didn't win.

GEORGE FRAZIER

CREW WEEK

I cannot wait 'til Crew Week. I want to know what team I am on. It is going to be super fun. I am going to have a great time.

DALTON FRAZIER

MOWGLIS IS THE BEST

Camp Mowglis is AWESOME. There is swimming, canoeing, kayaking, tubing, sailing, riflery, and much more! The best part is probably the food. We get three meals a day with seconds AND thirds! Camp Mowglis is the best.

LOGAN WILD

ONE FUN WEEK

We did a lot of Industries. For example, we did archery. Also, we did swimming, sailing, and canoeing.

RAIFE GOYETTE

BLAKE'S FUN

At the arts and crafts shop, Mr. Ayuso had lots of fun things that we did. It was so fun.

BLAKE SOLTYSIK

CREW WEEK

Today I'm going to learn what crew I'm on. I can't believe the days go by so fast. I'm gonna miss Mr. Liam Jenkins.

DEREK MA

GREAT WEEK

Yesterday I got urchin tossed. It was awesome. I moved from the dorm to the tent. Camp is so fun I can't wait for Crew Week.

RYDER JIN

A FEATHER

At camp today we were going back to our dorm. On our way, I found a feather that shakes your fingers when you move your hand up and down.

VITIEN ALEM-MBELEM

DESCRIBING CAMP

I really don't know how camp has gone by so fast. Last thing I remember is getting dropped off, now I'm getting painted for Crew Week. I can't really describe it.

JOE SPRUNG

JACK'S HOWL

Camp is great. We did water sports and we got ice pops for snack. So basically, we played in the water for most of the day. I love camp. It is so much fun.

JACK BOULD

KAYAKING

Today I did the kayaking club. I had to dock my kayak and we paddled around the buoys. It was amazing.

PAUL SAROSI

MOUNTAIN BIKING

Mountain biking is so fun and dangerous. It is hard and bumpy. The tires are huge.

JACK VIVES

BVD

It was a BVD! It was so fun. I made a poster today and I did music.

RYDER JIN

CREW WEEK

During Crew Week I was put on red crew. We lost by 2-3. We shook the hands of blue crew. Mr. Hart said "We did not lose, we learned."

VITIEN ALEM-MBELEM

FUN CLUB

Music is super fun. The bugle is so cool.

BLAKE SOLTYSIK

BLACKSMITHING

I learned something in blacksmithing. Pro tip: don't touch anything except the hammer and tongs.

MAX RUDOLPH

FUN AT CAMP

Camp is great. I love camp because we did Clubs. My club was tabletop games. Yesterday was crew day. We did fun activities and cheers. We did the Cub race.

CLUBS 2022

Clubs at Camp Mowglis are awesome. My favorite club is tabletop games with Mr. Hammond, where you choose a Pokemon and go on missions D&D style! Camp Mowglis is the best!

LOGAN WILD

LOVE OF MOWGLIS

The reason why I like Mowglis is because Mowglis is always prepared. This camp has a brain like no other camp.

CHARLIE BALDWIN

CREW DAY

I am on blue crew. I won the Cub race. Blue crew won. I was happy.

DALTON FRAZIER

ONE FUNNY DAY

Yesterday was crew day and it was funny. Let me tell you we thought red was going to win, but blue won. That was funny.

RAIFE GOYETTE

DROWNING MY SORROW IN RED PAINT

During crew day, when we were putting on our paint, I just did a red paint fingerprint. But then, once first form lost, I lost all hope, so I jumped in the bucket of red paint...

JOE SPRUNG

ON THE FIRST DAY OF CAMP

On the first day of camp, I wanted to go home. When it was dinner, I was more settled in. I started playing with my cube then I wanted to stay.

GEORGE FRAZIER

PADDLE BOARDING

Today was awesome! I got to paddle to Waingunga and then to the swimmers' raft. I tried to knock my "best bud" off the paddle board but he knocked me off.

HENRY BOULD

CREW DAY

It was a blue crew win, but I loved the parade!

STEVEN LUCARELLI

2022 YEARLINGS

Another summer passes, and I can't stop this feeling deep inside of me—the feeling that this Yearling group was truly special. I'll proudly admit that spending part of this past summer with these Mowglis men had a lasting impact on me. I hope that their experience had some lasting impact on them as well, as they began to emerge as leaders in their communities.

Returning to Mowglis after a fall, winter, and spring away always provides an interesting reunion experience for campers. What's new? What's the same? Wait, how does this Mowglis schedule work again? What is the second verse to that camp song? Make no mistake, this is something we as staff also experience from time to time, but campers and staff alike (given the right environment and circumstances) find their 'swing' pretty quickly. The naturally immersive nature of Mowglis hearkens us back to what we learned in our Industries, in our boats. We find a swing, the same swing we find in our crew shells by the end of the summer—you definitely feel it when it's happening. As Yearlings, these young men found their swing this summer. They did it quickly, and you could feel it. And I was hooked on this group.

The young men and I got to know each other over a trip to Cliff Island. A fun trip that is a rite of passage for all campers. Our trip is where our future Junior Staff discovered the difference between being a camper and a staff member. It was where they begin to recognize the responsibility that they will be asked to take on—not just at camp, but in life. It is where they begin to understand how they can harness their brotherhood to ensure the group comes through a trip safely together. I saw boys set off in canoes to Cliff Island (less some of their gear), but I saw young men on Grey Brothers field when we returned.

The Yearlings completed a traverse in the Whites, one that many had been denied with the previous summer's COVID complications. They also spent some time learning to whitewater kayak on the Deerfield in Massachusetts. These trip experiences were surely improved by the group's attention to planning, ability to manage themselves, and the understanding that they would be a part of caring for the Pack. I saw these young men begin to treat each other, the campers, and staff, as well as the public, with respect and compassion. I saw them go from sitting at the back of the room to the front, the first to raise their hands eager to help. They led the Cubs in songs in Kipling Hall, the emphatic sound of which rang out across the Mowglis campus during campfire. The young men began to recognize the younger campers when they were in need, and I witnessed them transitioning to compassionate leaders.

This group conducted trail maintenance with AMC, foregoing their chance to summit Cardigan in favor of finishing a project they hadn't been asked to complete. The Chapel benches were resurfaced with great care. And yet, we found our balance between work and play. Yearling Soak became one of our most treasured times of the day. And I believe we will all continue the Cave and Cub Rights—traditions that this group advanced with care for future Yearling groups. Before taking their rightful place among the Junior Staff, they developed leadership skills, demonstrated proficiency in leading Industries, and repeatedly demonstrated integrity. I am quite proud of the effort that was put in.

Mowglis will be greatly enhanced by the return of these men to this and all of their communities. I hope that they all come back to this special place, to help us pass on our knowledge and traditions. As much as we can, let's go through those interesting annual reunions, let's make those staff announcements, let us plan trips for the campers, let us lead from the front, and keep the Pack first. To the once Yearlings, and to my new colleagues, remember to have more splendid moments and more meaningful adventures! This group had me believing, so let's go swing together.

We are the Jungle.
